Despite Some Loss

Real Estate Valuation Shows Marked Gain

Despite the loss of the Sedalia Water Works for tax purposes, the total assessed valuation for real estate in Pettis County for 1958 taxes is up $176,690 over the total for 1957, according to figures released by the county assessor's office.

Assessed valuation of real estate within the city of Sedalia shows a $704,960 gain over 1957. This is comparable to an average gain within the city of $912,812 annually for the past five years. The total gain for the years 1954 through 1958 add up to $4,564,060. In 1954, the assessment books showed a city gain of $447,270; in 1955, $701,240; in 1956, when there was a considerable amount of construction, the assessed valuation jumped to a $1,700,240 gain; in 1957, $1,010,350; and in 1958, $704,960.

The only losses in real estate valuation were registered by the loss of the Sedalia Water Co., which became public property and exempt from taxation. An assessed valuation of $792,420 for the company, and $2,620 for property in Sedalia owned by the company, was lost for taxation purposes.

In addition to gains within the city of Sedalia, farm land evaluation jumped from $13,438,880 in 1957 to $13,596,870; small towns from $963,410 in 1957 to $1,021,860; the Central Missouri Electric Co.

operative from $1,050 in 1957 to $41,050, because of its new building on North Highway 65; and rural platted areas from $5,560 in 1957 to $15,890.

Assessed valuation for the Pittsburg-Corning firm remained the same, $141,400.

The total evaluation for Pettis County real estate for 1958 is $33,100,080. For the city it is $18,283,010.

Personal property evaluation for 1958 taxes has also shown a substantial increase. In 1957, the Pettis County total was $5,687,330, and in 1958, $5,708,020, for a $20,690 gain. In the city of Sedalia, personal property evaluation jumped from $5,553,540 in 1957 to $5,585,200, for a $31,660 increase.

Coroner Rules Napton Man's Death Suicide

BOONVILLE (AP) — Dr. M. L. Diekroeger, Cooper County coroner, issued a ruling of suicide Saturday in the death of Harry H. Eikerman, who was found hanging out a window at St. Joseph's Hospital Friday.

Eikerman was 32 and lived at Napton, Mo., near Marshall. The hospital said he had been a patient several times recently.

Varner Convicted In Slaying

Jury Urges 10-Year Term for Operator Of Lake Dude Ranch

CALIFORNIA, Mo. (AP) — The state won a second degree murder conviction against Tex Varner today on its second try and the jury prescribed a 10-year prison term for the dapper dude rancher.

He was accused of killing the foreman and a hired boy at a rival horseback riding resort in the Lake of the Ozarks. The ambush slayings followed a year-long feud over broken fences and barbed wire barriers across riding trails.

A jury of five women and seven men deliberated about 7½ hours last night and today before convicting the 50-year-old Varner of slaying Larry Dale Irwin, the 15-year-old stable boy from Iberia, Mo.

Another jury acquitted Varner in April when he was tried for the killing of Edwin Boycen, 46, the foreman. Boysen formerly lived at Sioux Falls, S.D., and Altoona, Ia.

Young Irwin and Boysen were shot down near one of Varner's riding trails last July 5.

"I am not guilty of this crime and will eventually prove myself innocent," Varner said after the verdict. "This works a definite handicap on my dear family."

Attorneys for Varner immediately took the first steps for a new trial and an appeal. Varner remains free on bond at least 40 days.

Robert L. Sansbury, foreman of the jury, said he and his colleagues decided to disregard the fact Varner served six years in an Illinois reformatory for a $1,500 theft in Chicago in 1931. The prosecution had asked for a ruling Varner was an habitual criminal, which carries an automatic life sentence.

Varner still wore his fancy cowboy regalia as he heard the jury's verdict. His blonde wife put her hand on his arm. Their three young children were at their feet. Mrs. Varner's eyes glistened with tears.

Mr. and Mrs. Clate Irwin, who had listened to all the testimony about the slaying of their son, were not in the courtroom for the verdict. Irwin is a clerk at $35 a week in a country store.

The father arrived at the courtroom later. "It's better than turning him loose," he said of the verdict.

The strain of five days in the courtroom was too much for Mrs. Irwin and she did not make the 50-mile trip from Iberia today.

The second degree murder verdict came within 30 minutes after the jury resumed its deliberations this morning. It tried for almost seven hours last night and was excused at 12:41 a.m. deadlocked 10 to 2 for conviction.

Adequate Weather Warning System for Sedalia Devised

FARMER FINED — Despite a sign warning Federal employees against trespassing, Deputy U. S. Marshal Robert J. Curtin, Jr., and his agents drove two tractors from the barn owned by Ethan Stangland of Albion, Indiana, and hauled them away. The tractors were attached in settlement of a fine and costs levied for wheat grown in excess of Stangland's quota.

Stop-Gap Measures For Coordination Will Be Established

The old Dorn - Cloney weather whistle is out of existence, but if plans made at a meeting of newsmen, civil defense and city officials in the Mayor's office work out, Sedalia will have an adequate weather warning system.

An attempt to disseminate weather information last Tuesday night brought out the immediate need for a coordinated, accurate warning system to be used in the event of a tornado actually approaching the city. The dissemination of general information via radio and television proved adequate, but when a funnel was sighted near Knob Noster, there was no planned way to get the information to everyone, immediately.

The Dorn-Cloney whistle, remembered by many Sedalia old-timers as a means of warning the community that something unusual was about to happen, was not heard. It was dismantled some time ago.

Makeshift attempts were used. Police cars slowly cruised the city with sirens open. But the sound of a siren in Sedalia is common, with police, ambulances and fire trucks using their sirens daily. Fire trucks were alerted, but those sirens were not used as the trucks were required to remain at the fire station in case of fire. Radio and television broadcast the warning, but some people had retired, and others thought the sirens were for a fire or accident. Luckily, the tornado did not touch Sedalia.

As a result of the unsuccessful attempt to reach everyone with an accurate warning, Peggie Homan, Pettis County Civil Defense Direc-

Russians Force Down USAF Plane

Nine Crew Members Detained; Plane Went Into the USSR

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union said Saturday night two Russian fighter planes forced a U. S. Air Force plane into a fiery landing after it flew 102 miles into the Soviet Union from eastern Turkey.

The plane's nine crew members, in uniform and identified as U. S. Air Force men, were detained, the Soviets said. The plane was identified only as a four-engine military craft of the U. S. Air Force.

A note handed by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko to U. S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson protested to the United States that the Russians called a crude violation of the Soviet frontier.

The note indicated that all the plane occupants escaped serious injury.

Neither Thompson nor subordinate embassy officials was immediately available for comment.

In Washington, the State Department press office said the department had not yet received the Soviet note. The Soviet Foreign Office usually presents its notes in Russian and they are translated at the embassy in Moscow before being transmitted to Washington.

At the Pentagon, a spokesman said no report had been received of the incident up to late afternoon but that a request for report had been sent to the Air Force in Europe.

The Soviet protest, also broadcast by Radio Moscow, charged that the plane came across the border south of Yerevan, capital of the Soviet Armenian Republic, which is a scant 10 miles from the east Turkey border.

Yerevan is about 40 miles northeast of Mt. Ararat, in Turkey, traditional resting place of Noah's ark.

The Soviet note said the plane flew over the border about 6:30 p. m.

"The American plane was met by two Soviet fighters which by means of signals proposed to it to follow them to land on a nearby airfield," the note continued.

"The plane border violator did not obey this demand. The Soviet fighters forced the plane border violator to land. It landed on Soviet territory in a district at a distance of 150 miles from the site of the boundary violation and burned."

"After the landing of the plane, there were apprehended nine members of the crew of this plane. They wore American uniforms."

"As has been learned from testimony of these persons and documents found on them all the persons held are in the service of the U. S. Air Force."

Held in Mountain Jungles By Rebels

U.S. Will Deal With Castro For Release of 12 Engineers

HAVANA, Cuba (AP) — The United States decided Saturday to deal directly with Fidel Castro's rebels for the release of 10 American and 2 Canadian engineers held in the hot mountain jungles of northeastern Cuba.

U. S. Ambassador Earl E. T. Smith ordered U. S. Consul Park Wollan to attempt to make contact with the rebels from Moa, the north coast city where a band of 200 rebels kidnapped the men Thursday night.

Emissaries of the Moa Mining Co. went into the mountains Friday but apparently failed in their attempt to win release of the men.

Troop Carriers Sent to Turkey, Placed on Alert

By Drew Pearson

The Air Force has flown several troop carriers from Germany to Turkey and ordered them on 15-minute alert to rush Turkish and Iraqi troops to revolt-ripped Lebanon. Supersonic fighters and bombers at our Turkish bases have also been ordered on "strip alert," ready for instant take-off.

The British-American plan is to answer a call for help from Lebanese President Chamoun with Turkish and Iraqi forces in the hope of confining a Lebanese war to the Middle East.

Secretary of State Dulles has urged President Chamoun not to call for Anglo-American help except in case of "dire emergency." Then British and American troops will be used, if possible, only to evacuate their own nationals.

The Sixth Fleet is loaded with over 3,000 battle-ready Marines within easy landing distance of Lebanon. A approximately 30,000 British paratroopers are also poised at Cyprus, less than 120 miles away.

The Air Force has sent no troop carriers to Iraq, because it is considered too close to the danger zone. The American planes would stop at British fields in Iraq, however, to pick up local troops. All Anglo-American military operations will be directed by Adm. Charles Brown, the Sixth Fleet commander.

He Meant to Stay Only a Short Time

Oscar DeWolf Will Retire July 1; 22 Years As Supervisor of FHA

Oscar H. DeWolf, who came to Sedalia on April 28, 1936, to stay only a short time, is retiring on July 1, as Farmers Home Administration supervisor, after 22 years.

Even though he is retiring, the short time he planned to stay in Sedalia which stretched to 22 years is going to stretch still farther because three years ago Oscar and his wife, Minnie, built a new home at 1115 West Broadway, and there they intend to stay.

He has three good hobbies to keep him busy, growing roses, for he has a beautiful rose garden; fishing and amateur photography. In the course of his amateur photography, he has collected many breath-taking colored slides of roses and rose gardens. But his outstanding pictures are of the springs of Missouri and other picturesque scenes, which he has shown to various organizations while giving interesting talks of facts and history about his pictures. He calls himself an amateur photographer, but his pictures equal those of a professional.

In addition to his hobbies, DeWolf will have time available for rural appraisal and consultation on water management and soil conservation on farms.

Oscar DeWolf was born in Braymer, Missouri, attended the University of Missouri where he received his bachelor of science degree in agriculture, his master's taught vocational agriculture for ten years and, following that, was an appraiser with the Federal Land Bank in St. Louis from 1933 to 1936.

Steve Hughes, now in the national office in Washington, D.C., was district supervisor in Kirksville of the Land Bank Resettlement Administration and, when he learned DeWolf was no longer with the Federal Land Bank in St. Louis he contacted him and asked him to take the position in Sedalia.

Oscar wasn't too interested. He told Hughes, who later became state director, that he wanted something permanent, to which Hughes replied: "Well, if you find something permanent, let me know, I'm looking for something permanent, too." Hughes is always amused when he thinks of Oscar's argument against taking the job because he didn't believe it was permanent and in which he subsequently served 22 years.

It was the WPA days when DeWolf came to Sedalia and there were 550 farmers on relief, being supported by subsistence grants of $30 for three months. His job was certifying who was entitled to the 90-day grants. He had to determine whether they had any means of self support and the

Police Chief Urges Safety On the Fourth

Sedalia Police Chief Ralph Hamlin Saturday urged everyone to observe a safe, sane and enjoyable Independence Day, and at the same time abide by the city-wide ban on the use of fireworks within the city limits.

City ordinance No. 4-402 clearly prohibits the use, storage, sale, purchase or display of fireworks in the city, except for public display. Fireworks may be used for public display only with the written permission of the mayor, countersigned by the fire chief.

As of Saturday, Hamlin said, there had been no requests for such displays this season. Individuals firing or setting off fireworks in the city are subject to a fine up to $100 for each offense, the ordinance reads. Hamlin said the ordinance would be enforced.

There is a considerable amount of danger in the use of fireworks. An Associated Press dispatch from St. Louis Saturday told of the first accidental death due to fireworks in the area in several years. A young man, Richard Payne, attempted to set off a skyrocket. The rocket burned, but failed to leave the ground.

A spark set off a second skyrocket as Payne approached to investigate. The launching stick of the second skyrocket pierced his abdomen, and he died seven hours later.

In addition to personal danger, there is considerable danger to property. Aerial displays in particular may not burn completely, and the embers may fall on nearby property and cause a fire.

Fireworks should not be thrown from automobiles, or set off on public highways, as this might cause an accident.

Airman Accidentally Shoots Self in Foot

A/3c Robert E. Willson, 19, 488th Bomb Squadron, Whiteman AFB, accidentally shot himself in the right foot about 3:50 p.m. Saturday while at the farm of Rosa Hicks, Route 5, Sedalia. Willson suffered a fracture of a small bone in the foot.

He was brought to the Bothwell Hospital by Don Pettis, Route 5, where Dr. A. J. Campbell, Jr., rendered medical treatment.

Willson was later transferred from the Bothwell Hospital to the hospital at Whiteman Air Force Base.

Billions in the Red

Government Will Wind Up Fiscal Year With Deficit

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government is due to wind up this fiscally unhappy year at midnight Monday with a deficit of 24 to 3 billion dollars.

High administration officials predicted this Saturday. Looming ahead for fiscal 1959 beginning Tuesday is the even more dismal prospect of red ink aggregating 11 billion dollars, or perhaps close to 12 billion.

This would carry the federal budget farther off balance than in any year since World War II, not excepting the period of the Korean War.

The business upturn which the administration expects this fall could improve the budget outlook, but not substantially. The lag in payment of corporate income taxes would delay much of the effect of a recovery until fiscal 1960.

Even for the bookkeeping year now closing, however, officials acknowledge that present guesses may be wide of the mark by as much as a few hundred million dollars. It will be two or three weeks before the final vouchers can be tabulated at the Treasury.

The business recession was the chief villain in transforming fiscal 1958 from what the Eisenhower administration expected to be its third successive year of balanced budgets into the start of a new period of deficit financing.

Income tax and corporation tax payments have dwindled with the drop in personal income and business profits. President Eisenhower's original estimate of $73,600,000,000 in receipts this fiscal year has shrunk to roughly 70 billion dollars. Spending is expected to be in the neighborhood of 73 billion dollars.

One official in close touch with budget developments said that a 24-billion-dollar deficit is "as close as we can come now" to an estimate for the past 12 months.

Another high source, equally close to the income and outgo picture, reported that a three-billion-dollar deficit is "as good as any figure we've seen." Experts of the Senate-House Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation made a still higher guess; they now believe a $3,400,000,000 figure would be reasonable.

Administration advisers expect no gain in total revenues in the fiscal year ahead. In fact, a decline is expected by some, while spending is expected to rise to another peacetime record of 78 to 80 billion dollars.

Queen Is Chosen

Record Crowd Attends T & C's Annual Picnic Saturday Night

Town and Country Shoe Company's annual picnic for employees of the Sedalia division of the firm was attended by nearly 1,200 persons Saturday evening at the shelter house in Liberty Park.

The activities began early in the afternoon with a softball game between the regular Town and Country girl's team and the men's team composed of foremen and male employees of the local factory. The game ended with the men winning for the first time in several years, 16 to 2.

A picnic plate was served at the shelter house. There were more than 1,100 who enjoyed the picnic meal of hamburgers, potato salad, and baked beans. Coffee and soda pop was served with the plate, followed by dessert of apple pie a la mode.

C. W. "Bill" Mathieson, vice-president of Town and Country Shoe Inc., was on hand seeing that each family had ample tickets for the affair, shaking hands and greeting his employees and various guests, as well as seeing that they had plenty to eat and enjoyed themselves.

Following the dinner — games were played and many prizes — which included everything from T & C shoes to buckets and fishing rods — were awarded to the guests.

Later in the evening the queen contest was conducted in convention hall preceding the dance. Nine candidates for queen representing the various departments of the company were escorted across the spacious dance floor to the stage where they were judged.

Parish Is Rebuilt by Generous Aid

Cameron Residents Not Alone
They Learn After Hurricane

Editor's Note — Kenneth L. Dixon, managing editor of the Lake Charles, La. American Press, worked tirelessly in the Cameron area when Hurricane Audrey smashed against the Louisiana coast June 27, 1957, and took more than 500 lives. Dixon, a former Associated Press columnist and war correspondent, describes the little fishing community on a visit one year after the storm.

By KENNETH L. DIXON

CAMERON, La. — "Finally they found that they were not alone—that neighbors still are neighbors all over America. It was then, I think, they changed their minds and came back home to Cameron."

The speaker was white-haired Sheriff O. B. Carter of Cameron Parish County.

The occasion was the first anniversary of Hurricane Audrey which ravaged this parish and took hundreds of lives a year ago today.

He was explaining why an estimated 98 per cent of the survivors have returned although most had sworn, "I'll never go back there again."

"They meant it then," says Carter. "It was partly shock, partly bitterness, partly sorrow—but mostly a great loneliness. And then they finally found that they were not alone, that help had come from everywhere. It gave them heart. They came home and started over. You can see what they have done."

You can. Ninety per cent of the homes and other buildings in Cameron Parish are new.

But let's go back a year, to the hurricane itself. . . . One year ago yesterday the hurricane tortured the seas of the Gulf of Mexico due south of Cameron. It was aimed due north, but it only inched along.

A pilot of a passing plane radioed back to his base: "This one is a killer."

It was. But some 500 (the estimates still vary) Cameron Parish people who were to die next day were not yet worried. Even if she held her course—which hurricanes seldom do—Audrey's timetable wouldn't get her to the coast until late this following night.

They forgot—or never knew—that a hurricane can suddenly uncoil and multiply its speed by many times, once it decides to strike. That's what happened.

Audrey swiftly picked up speed, jumping to 22 miles an hour.

Shortly after midnight, her twin fangs of wind and water struck the still sleeping people of Cameron, and neighboring communities. She was 12 to 18 hours ahead of schedule.

Winds of more than 100 miles an hour hurled huge, crushing waves inland, destroying almost everything in their path.

Mammoth trees were uprooted and tossed like toothpicks. Concrete burial vaults were flung along for miles. Buildings of brick and stone and lumber were smashed, the ground beneath them swept clear. Audrey swept the debris northward, out over the carpet of marshland, and left it there.

All the while people were dying. They died in their homes as 90 per cent of the houses crumbled like cardboard. They died in the tree tops, still clinging to their young. We buried some still locked together, for rigor mortis had continued in death the protecting embrace of life.

They died on floating beams and rooftops. They died in cars trying to escape—along roads which were mere causeways at first, and soon became nothing at all.

They continued dying after dawn. Weak from fatigue, exposure, sunburn, shock and hunger, one by one they slipped from the floating debris into the cluttered waters, miles and miles inland.

Finally Audrey passed by and the rescue work began.

You know the rest of that story. . . . How they brought in the dead by the hundred, first to the ice house at Cameron, then to the docks at Lake Charles. . . . how they brought out survivors by thousands, and fed them and sheltered and clothed them. . . . How they started to plan immediately to rebuild Cameron Parish.

It was then so many survivors said: "I'll never go back there again."

But they did—and here's why: Help started pouring in from all over the country, in money, in clothing, in food and in labor," says Carter. "It came from the American people through the Red Cross, the Salvation Army, the AFL-CIO labor unions, the civil defense, the churches, the schools, the civic organizations, big companies and single individuals. You couldn't possibly list all the groups and individuals who helped."

Carter pauses, polishes his steaming glasses, reflects. "At first it didn't seem to change the survivors' minds," he says. "They still were in a state of shocked and stunned defeat. Of course, many of them came back right away. But the tide didn't turn for the big majority for two to four months."

"But when they did come back it was mostly for the same reason. They realized they weren't forgotten, they weren't alone."

And so they sort of shook themselves, rolled up their sleeves and went at it. . . .

Now Cameron is rebuilt. It's newer and stronger than ever. It has a hurricane warning system that's as near foolproof as men can devise.

Would you people evacuate now if the warning came?

"They would," says Sheriff Carter. "Once you've been shot, you're gunshy whenever you look down a barrel again."

But they'd come back again, and they wouldn't feel alone.

Kathy Nolan Gives Views

Life On Mississippi Showboat
Much Like Life in TV StudioBy DORTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

Life on a Mississippi showboat has much in common with life in a television studio, says small, red haired Kathy Nolan, who is well acquainted with both.

Kathy's professional career began at the age of 13 months, aboard the showboat Goldenrod, which plied the Mississippi from Cincinnati to New Orleans.

From then until the age of 17, Kathy played the full range of parts in such tried-and-true thrillers as "Ten Nights in a Barroom," "East Lynne," and "Lure of the City," living aboard the boat much of the time with her parents, Stephen and Terry Ellis, worth, and her big sister, Nancy.

"We did from five to ten shows in two weeks and there never was much time to rehearse," says Kathy. "So learning one script a week for television is a breeze."

"One of my first jobs after I came to New York was with a road company of 'Captain Kidd's Return,'" she says. "The cast of six traveled in a station wagon with the scenery strapped on top, and when we got to a town we were playing we had to put up our own seats and press our own costumes. That sort of thing makes you rugged—and you have to be rugged to take the television pace."

Kathy's main job now is with a weekly TV show, "The Real McCoy," in which she is co-starred with Walter Brennan. Previously she has had featured roles in a number of radio and television shows, including the role of Wendy in "Peter Pan," which starred Mary Martin.

"When you play on a showboat, the audience talks back to you, and you talk back to them. They cheer the hero and hiss the villain, and sometimes they try to warn the actors about what's coming," says 24-year-old Kathy.

"For instance, in a play where the villain is lurking behind a tree, the audience may shout 'Look Out!' when the heroine comes on stage. Then she says in an aside to them, 'I'm not supposed to know he's there'—and goes on with the show. It's all live, it's human and it's fun."

Kathy is going back this summer to play a one-night stand in "Lure of the City" aboard the Goldenrod, now anchored at St. Louis. Says she:

"I can't wait to go back. It will be such a thrill to do the old part once again. And see the wonderful old showboat, and all my friends, including Capt. Billy Menke. Besides 'Lure of the City' has always been my very favorite play."

Write Instructions For Vacation Mail Delivery

A good way to keep your mail from getting lost during that summer vacation is to leave delivery instructions in writing, according to Maurice Hogan, Sedalia postmaster.

Hogan explained this week that many Sedalians leaving on vacation make it a practice to phone the post office with instructions. He said the post office could not accept these instructions, as postal regulations require all changes in address or delivery instructions to be in writing. This protects the patron as well as the postal employees.

The patron is protected with the assurance that no one else can phone in a change of address or delivery data. The post office is protected in that it has the instructions in writing.

Many vacationing patrons wish their mail held at the post office until their return. Hogan says the post office prefers not to hold the mail as there is not sufficient space for a great amount of storage. The post office would like vacationers to have their mail delivered to a neighbor, relative or friend. This can be accomplished by submitting the desired instructions in writing to the post office.

Regular change of address cards available at the post office or from carriers, or an ordinary post card may be used. Hogan stressed that all instructions must be in writing. All first class mail may be forwarded at no expense to the recipient, providing the written instructions are on file at the post office.

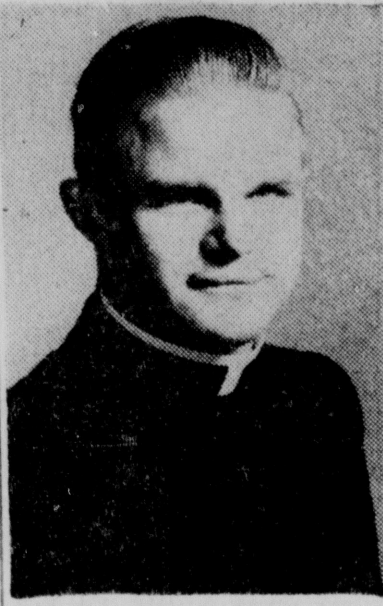

As for parcel post items, they may also be left with anyone upon written request of the patron. This does not include COD, registered or insured mail or packages, as these items must be signed for by the patron. Normally, the carrier will make one delivery of all packages, and if the patron is not at home the package will be returned to the post office. If the package is returned, a notice will be mailed to the patron, and a second delivery will not be attempted until the patron either calls or writes the post office for the additional delivery.

Packages will not be left in unprotected places. At private homes, the carrier will ring or knock, and if the patron is not at home, he will try the front door. If the door is open, he will leave the package inside. This does not apply to apartment houses, as this type entrance is not considered an unprotected place.

Hogan pointed out that the post office will make any reasonable effort to be of service to the community. Carriers are not required to pick up letters on mail boxes unless they have a delivery at that box, yet many times during the day carriers pick up the letters even if they don't have a delivery to make. He said the post office has had a few complaints on this type of letter pick-up, because the patron did not know that the carrier is not required to pick up the letters unless he has a delivery to make. He also pointed out that Sedalia has an extensive system of letter collection boxes which patrons should use if they want to make sure the letter goes out on the next train.

He also asked patrons to cooperate, especially during the summer months in keeping dogs under control. Postal regulations do not require a carrier to approach a house to make a de-

Fine English Writer, Alfred Noyes, Dies

ISLE OF WIGHT, England (AP)—Alfred Noyes, 77, a robust British writer who made a living on poetry, died in a hospital today.

Probably his best known poem was "Kew In Lilac Time." Another, "The Highwayman," was made into a movie.

Six feet, 200 pounds, clean-shaven and short-haired, Noyes was a far cry from the popular conception of a poet. But his poems immediately became popular here and in the United States. Many of them were set to music. He made 15 trips to the United States and lectured in more than 1,000 U.S. communities. He was professor of modern English literature at Princeton University from 1913 to 1923. He held honorary degrees from Yale, the University of California, and Syracuse University. He was graduated from Oxford.

In 1907 Noyes married Garnett Daniels, daughter of a U.S. Army officer, Col. B. G. Daniels. She died in 1926. Later he married an English widow, Mary Weld-Blundell. They had one son and two daughters.

Bitter Battles Resume In Tripoli, Sidon

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Bitter fighting raged Saturday in the Lebanese port cities of Tripoli and Sidon. Beirut was quiet during the day but darkness brought a flare-up of scattered shooting.

As the revolt dragged through its 50th day in this little Middle East nation, Prime Minister Sami Solh declared the U.N.-observer group sent here is not equal to the job of halting what he termed increasing infiltration.

Lebanon's government has charged the United Arab Republic is smuggling arms and men into the country.

On the fighting fronts, rebel forces attacked government troops in a battle that lasted through the night and into Saturday morning in Tripoli. Reports from the coastal city said eight persons were killed and about 20 wounded.

Rebels using mortars and hand grenades attacked army positions, setting fire to one of the city's main squares.

In the southern seaport of Sidon, troops and rebels fought what an army communique described as a heavy battle. It said one captain was killed and casualties on the rebel side were unknown.

Solh said in an interview with The Associated Press that the smuggling of arms and infiltration have increased since U.N. observers arrived in Lebanon June 12.

Solh reiterated that he believes a U.N. police force is necessary to halt infiltration. He said he had told U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold a police force is needed when the U.N. official visited Lebanon this week, but that he did not hand a formal request to Hammarskjold. Solh earlier had asked Hammarskjold for a police force.

The Prime minister said his government had expected the U. N. to help Lebanon more "because we are surrounded by hostile Syria and Egypt and are fighting foreign elements inside our country."

basis for the subsistence loan. He would investigate to see in what way a farmer could make his own living, for there were some with a few horses, cows or some old machinery. Gradually he got them started on their own and, off grants until finally grants were eliminated altogether. They would also set a man up with a rural habitation loan in the business of farming.

As the program developed over the years, it increased into a more stable operation until the early 1940's. In 1942 it became the Farm Security Administration, operating under executive orders from year to year.

In 1946 the name was changed to Farmers Home Administration and it became a permanent division under the Jones Bank Act. The scope of activity was broadened. They began in 1942 marketing real estate loans to enable people to buy farms at 100 per cent of the normal agricultural value.

DeWolf's total time of federal service is a little more than 27 years. He served in World War I as a first lieutenant in the field artillery.

His civic activities in Sedalia have been many. He is a past president of Rotary, serving in 1949-50. He is a past president of the Sedalia Rose Society, served as an executive board member of the Lake of the Ozarks Council, Boy Scouts of America, for 11 years and is now a member of the advisory committee of that board.

He is immediate past vice-chairman of the North Central District of the American Rose Society, comprised of seven states; he has served in Red Cross activities as co-chairman of the rural campaign and at the present time is a member of the board of directors of the Pettis County American Red Cross chapter. He is a member of the board of trustees of the First Baptist Church and teaches the men's bible class of that church; and is chairman of the Rose Show for the Missouri State Fair this year for the third season.

Mr. and Mrs. DeWolf have two children, a daughter, Mary Margaret (Peggy), who is the wife of John Merry, technical director of television station WPIX, of the New York Daily News, New York; and a son Howard who is a graduate of the Michigan State University and is now connected with the Warren S. Holmes, Inc., architects, as junior executive and director of all drafting work.

Mary Margaret, who like her mother, is a graduate of Stephens College, majoring in voice, also attended Central Missouri State College at Warrensburg. She has three children, Madeline, 15, Paul 13, and John Eugene, seven. Howard has two children, Marcia, four, and Ellen, 2½.

US Sailors Tangle With Bull In Arena

LISBON, Portugal (AP)—A hundred U. S. sailors, dressed in white uniforms, climbed into a ring with a young bull Saturday.

The bull had padded horns and for an hour, spectators in the stands roared as the sailors threw or rode the bull or got thrown or butted by him.

The young bull was turned loose for the sailors at the end of a bullfight in honor of Vice Adm. Bernard Liege Austin, commander of the U. S. 2nd Fleet, and his men.

Perfect Sunday School Attendance 83 Years

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A perfect Sunday School attendance of 83 years—claimed by church officials as a world's record—will be marked Sunday by Miss Jennie Powers, 86, at Westside Presbyterian Church.

Even the foot-deep snow of last Feb. 16 didn't keep her home. Two men carried her to a car and drove her to church for a service attended by only a few. The record was compiled entirely at the Westside Church.

Fire of undetermined origin damaged two sheds and their contents at 511 and 513 West Fifth about 3:25 p. m. Friday.

The blaze started between the two sheds, burning up the side of the one at 513 West Fifth, owned by Mrs. T. A. Huffine, then spreading to the shed at 511 West Fifth, owned by C. N. Aven.

In the Aven building were a large number of antique pieces some of which were destroyed and others damaged. Aven's loss amounted to $150 to the shed and about $400 to contents, while the damage to the Huffine building was $250, and $50 to contents.

One line of hose was used by firemen to fight the flames, which shot up into electric and telephone wires on a pole beside the Huffine property. Power was cut from several of the residents, but was soon restored.

Accidents

Two cars were involved in an accident at 511 South Ohio at 5:30 p. m. Friday. There were no injuries.

Involved was a 1950 Chevrolet, driven north on Ohio by Bobby LeRoy Smith, 1903 South Ingram, and a 1949 DeSoto, driven north on Ohio by Jesse Cole, 205 East Boonville.

The right front fender of the Chevrolet was damaged and the left rear of the DeSoto received slight damages.

Two cars were in collision at Vermont and Main at 3:11 p. m. Friday. There were no injuries. A 1948 Chevrolet, driven south on Vermont by Richard R. Harrison, Route 2, and a 1951 Buick, driven east on Main by Pearl L. Heuerman, also Route 2, were involved.

The right front end of the Chevrolet was damaged and the left rear end of the Buick received slight damages.

Bill White, 33, of Pittsburg, Kan., was seriously injured last Sunday at 11:45 p. m. when his 1958 sedan crashed into a jack-knifed truck near Fredonia, Kan. White, an insurance adjuster for Western Adjustment Co., was going to El Dorado, Kan., to survey tornado losses when the accident occurred.

He is now a patient in a Pittsburg hospital and latest reports indicate he is making satisfactory improvement. White, a former Sedalian, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William T. White, 505 East Fourth.

White's car shot under the truck which had the highway blocked. The top of the vehicle was ripped away by the bed of the truck.

A car-truck accident occurred at 3:35 p. m. Saturday in front of 223 East Third.

It involved a 1957 GMC truck being backed onto Third by Henry Heinaman Jr., 213 West 10th, and a 1949 Plymouth owned by Norbert Prenger, 1012 East Seventh.

Damaged resulted to the rear end of the Plymouth.

Two cars were extensively damaged and one person suffered minor injuries in a collision on State Highway 32, 3½ miles west of the Windsor Junction of Highway 65 about 6 o'clock Friday night.

Mrs. Josephine Bearrow, 55, Hickman Mills, suffered an injury to her left shoulder and left hip. Her injuries were not considered serious and she continued on to her home.

Involved were a 1956 Oldsmobile sedan driven west by Mrs. Fannie Louise Thompson, 35, Hickman Mills, and a 1956 Chevrolet sedan also driven west by Mrs. Mary Margaret Turner, 33, Merriam, Kan.

According to Trooper Pete Stohr of the State Highway Patrol, Mrs. Turner started to make a right turn into a service station, and Mrs. Thompson reported she thought the car ahead was going to turn left and pulled to the right to go around and the cars collided.

The left side of the Oldsmobile and the right side of the Chevrolet were extensively damaged.

A 1951 Chevrolet tudor sedan driven by A. J. Leroy Hayes, 19, Whiteman Air Force Base, missed a curve near the Quisenberry School bridge and barely left the roadway about 9:15 p. m. Friday.

The car eased off the roadway, struck a barbed wire fence and stopped just short of going over the embankment and into the small creek.

Chamberlin's wrecker pulled the car back on the road with no more damage than a few barbed wire scratches on the paint.

Flock of Names Proves Useless; Mom Was Right

MANITOWOC, Wis. (AP)—The 13 sons of the Matthew Wagners had a flock of boys names ready for the new baby in the family. But it turned out their mother had the winning combination. She picked Mary Ann.

The first girl in the all-boy family that, Wagner says, "takes what God gives us," is due home this weekend from Holy Family Hospital. Born Wednesday, she weighed a robust 10 pounds, 6 1/4 ounces. Home for the Wagners is a 38-acre dairy farm on which everyone shares the work.

Obviously the boys hadn't counted on having a sister, and Wagner admitted today that he had "given up all ideas of having a girl." But his wife, Julitta, thought differently.

"I have an idea she had that name picked out five years ago—just hoping," said Wagner. The boys, though, had been asked for suggestions. Each had favorite names and we wrote them all down—all boy's names.

Wagner said the boys reacted quite naturally to the happy news. "they didn't say much, but everyone of them grinned from ear to ear. With that many brothers to look out for her, Mary Ann ought to make out all right," he added. Will there be more children?

"Will it rain tomorrow," answered Wagner. "Who knows? We are a Catholic family and we take what God gives us. So far we have nothing to complain about."

Even the hospital got into the spirit of the thing. Mrs. Wagner's hospitalization was "on the house."

Lady bugs do not die at the end of the season like so many other insects. They hibernate for the winter.

3 Children Perish

ELBING, Kan. (AP)—Three children perished in a fire that destroyed the two-story frame house of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dyck early Saturday.

The children were trapped in upstairs bedrooms. They were Gene Dyck, 13, and his sisters, Barbara, 8, and Norma, 7.

The parents were sleeping downstairs and escaped uninjured. The father called to the children to jump, and the son replied, "I can't." Nothing further was heard from the children as the flames spread up a stairwell. Authorities said the fire may have started from a water heater.

Strong Protest Toward Moscow

LONDON (AP)—Britain fired a strong protest to Moscow over the Russian fishermen who swarmed over a Shetland Island moor to hunt down a fugitive seaman, the Foreign Office announced today.

A note delivered to the Soviet Embassy Friday said Britain takes a grave view of the incident.

The fugitive, an Estonian seaman named Erich Teayn, slipped off a trawler in the dark and escaped his Soviet pursuers by hiding in a shepherd's cottage after a breathless chase early last Thursday. The British note said that if the

Will Try to Snap Losing Skein

Sedalia Athletics to Play At Jefferson City Tonight

The Sedalia Athletics will be out to snap a two game losing streak in the Missouri Valley ABC League tonight when they travel to Jefferson City to take on the Capital City Redbirds. Bill George, who hurled an 8-2 triumph over Stan Adrain's defending champions earlier this season, is expected to be on the hill for the Sedalians.

The A's who had been leading the MVL only ten days ago, are now lodged in third place with the Mexico Builders as a result to 3-2 and 5-4 losses to the Columbia VFW, defending Missouri semi-pro champs. Elroy Burton hurled both games for Vint Siegel's charges and allowed only five hits—two in the 3-2 defeat and three in Friday night's 5-4 loss at Columbia. Although the little righthander deserved a better fate in both games, his own wildness has proved costly.

The Athletics were in command of a 4-2 lead going into the bottom of the eighth Friday night when Burton lost control and walked three and hit one VFW batsman to yield three runs and the decision. Another Columbia run in the fifth came on a double and three walks. Burton fanned four and gave up seven bases on balls. The A's were guilty of one error.

Lloyd Forbis gained his second straight decision over the A's in going the route for the Columbians. The hefty righthander hurled six-hit ball—finding only Don Broadus a tough man to retire. Broadus collected three singles for the evening. Forbis fanned eight and walked two. Columbia played errorless ball.

The A's, thin on reserves and punch at the plate, have followed the example of the Jefferson City Redbirds in attempting to bolster the attack. Adrain managed to bring hard hitting Jem Weber back into the "Birds fold and the once "retired" shortstop was stationed at first place in a 6-3 win over the Mexico Builders. The win ended a three game losing streak for the Redbirds.

The Athletic management has successfully lured Paul Evans and Junior Smith back into uniform. Evans formerly played shortstop and outfield for the Sedalia A's and Smith was a first baseman-outfielder. Both are well known for their heavy stickwork. Evans and Smith reported for the A's special practice at Liberty Park on Saturday night.

Although the A's have dropped three games in the ABC loop, they could still crop the flag in the first half. A win over the Redbirds tonight would give the locals a 2-1 edge in first half play against the Capital Cityans.

The Athletics are sponsored by Mid-Mo Electric, Owen General Tires and Hammes Beer. They will leave for tonight's game at 5:30 p. m. from Jim "Salty" Schumaker's D-X station on South Limit.

Old-Timers Will Get a Crack At Sedalia A's

Sedalia's many illustrious old-time baseball players—some recent and others a little more ancient—will get a crack at the Sedalia Athletics on Sunday night, July 13th when the two teams clash in "Baseball Appreciation Day" at Liberty Park.

To make the match as even as possible, the A's will lend the old-timers their first string battery. In turn, the oldtimers' pitchers and catchers will perform for the youngsters.

The Athletics are attempting to contact as many of the old timers as possible, but if anyone should be missed it will be the result of an oversight and those players will be welcome to participate, too.

The Athletics have almost completed their schedule for the regular season. A few dates remain open during the first two weeks of August. On Tuesday night the A's return to Liberty Park to open the second half of Missouri Valley League play against the Columbia VFW. On July 4th the St. Louis Ballwin Club will be in town for a day-night twinbill. The St. Louis club, dotted with former major league performers, is leading the County Kohry League in St. Louis.

Team Entries Being Accepted for Tourney

Team entries are now being accepted throughout Missouri from sandlot teams with players of unlimited age in conjunction with the 23rd annual state tournament at Columbia, starting July 25, the National Baseball Congress announced today.

The Missouri state champions will qualify for a berth in the annual National championship baseball tourney in Wichita, Kan., in late August. The U. S. titlists will be awarded a cash purse of $10,000.

Sandlot teams desiring to enter the state tournament program should contact at once either G. W. (Bill) Hulet, Missouri state commissioner, 700 Highway 40 East, Columbia, Mo., or National Baseball Congress, Wichita (4) Kan.

Sedalia Chiefs Host Lexington BJs Tonight

Manager Bill Arnold's Ban Johnson Chiefs, battling to hang on to second place in the Western Division of the Central Missouri Ban Johnson League, will host the Lexington BJs in an important game at Liberty Park tonight. Game time is 8 p. m.

The Chiefs suffered their third setback of the first half Thursday night when the lowly Marshall club got an excellent pitching performance to best the Sedalians and Bill Mateja, 3-2, in a game played at Marshall. The Chiefs have won six games in first play and must still meet Richmond in a make-up game and Tipton to complete first half competition.

Mervyn McCown, the Chiefs big fastballing righthander, will get the starting pitching assignment with Larry Mines behind the plate. McCown has recorded two victories this season and hasn't tasted defeat. He gained a 10-8 decision over Lexington earlier this season in a relief role for Southpaw Jack Satterwhite.

Tonight is family night at Liberty Park and the entire family will be admitted for the price of a single admission—fifty cents.

Yanks Batter A's 8-0 Behind Ford's 3-Hitter

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Whitey Ford, ace Yankee southpaw, hurled his 100th regular season major league victory Saturday night. His brilliant 3-hit performance gave New York an 8-0 decision over the second-place Kansas City Athletics.

Ford, who struck out 8 and walked only 2, had a 1-hitter going into the seventh. He had given Bob Cerv a single in the second. In the seventh Roger Maris singled, was erased in a double play and Cerv got in his second single of the night. In no inning did a runner reach second base.

The victory gave Ford a 9-3 record for this year and put his all-time major league record, started in 1950, at 100-36.

The Yankee used the home run ball three times to help pile up their second straight win in the 3-game series. New York 001 410 020—8 10 0 Kan. City 000 000 000—0 3 0 Ford and Berra; Urban, Burnett (4), Grim (7) and Smith, L—Urban.

Rookie Hurls Braves Over Dodgers, 7 to 3

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The pace-setting Milwaukee Braves, with nothing to show for seven games with the lowly Dodgers this year except defeat, finally turned on their tormentors Saturday to hammer out a resounding 7-3 victory. Rookie right-hander Carl Willey went the distance as he limited Los Angeles to four hits.

It was Willey's second straight major league victory. He shut out San Francisco 7-0 in his debut last Monday.

Milwaukee ... 210 010 12x—7 11 1 Los Angeles ... 100 001 001—3 4 1 Podres, Klippstein (1), Erskine (7), Kipp (8) and Roseboro; Willey and Crandall, L—Podres.

Missouri Valley Tennis Tourney Finals Today

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Tut Bartzon of Dallas and Esteban Reyes of Mexico survived rugged semifinal competition Saturday and will play Sunday for the men's singles title of the Missouri Valley tennis tournament.

The 39-year-old Bartzon, rated 9th nationally, stemmed a rash of power shot to defeat fourth-seeded John Povless, Flora, Ill., 6-4, 9-7.

Reyes, highly regarded in Mexico, rallied to turn back veteran Hal Surface of Kansas City, 2-6, 6-3, 6-3.

In the women's singles semifinals top-seeded Baby Vivanco, Mexico, defeated Doris Popple, Des Moines, 9-7, 6-1. Lucille Davidson, Raytown, Mo., gained the other finals berth by beating second-seeded Zoe De Mendoza, Havana, Cuba, 6-0, 10-8.

Six Braves To Be On NL All-Star Team

CINCINNATI (AP)—Manager Fred Haney will have six members of his world champion Milwaukee Braves on his squad when he takes the National League team into the annual major league All-Star game at Baltimore on July 8.

Outfielder Hank Aaron and catcher Del Crandall were selected for the starting lineup by a vote of the league's players and Haney picked four others Saturday as he completed the 25-man squad.

Haney chose pitchers Don McMahon and Warren Spahn, shortstop Johnny Logan and third baseman Eddie Mathews.

According to custom, the manager picks all of the pitchers and Haney rounded out his hurling staff by selecting Johnny Antonelli of the San Francisco Giants.

Dick Farrell of the Philadelphia Phillies, Bob Friend of the Pittsburgh Pirates, Larry Jackson of the St. Louis Cardinals, Johnny Podres of the Los Angeles Dodgers and Bob Purkey of the Cincinnati Redlegs.

Honey's other selections were outfielders Richie Ashburn of the Philadelphia and Left Morry and Lee Walls of the Chicago Cubs; catcher John Roseboro of the Dodgers and Bob Schmidt of the Giants; and infielders Don Blasingame of the Cardinals and George Crowe of the Redlegs.

As the squad stands, the Braves will have six players, the Pirates four, the Cubs, Cardinals and Giants three each and the Redlegs, Phils and Dodgers two each.

The selection of only two Cincinnati players was a far cry from the rosters of the past two years when Redlegs dominated the starting lineup under the old system of having the starters picked by a vote of the fans.

The National League starters, excluding the pitcher, will be Crandall, catcher; Stan Musial of the Cards, first base; Bill Mazerowski of the Pirates, second base; Ernie Banks of the Cubs, shortstop; Frank Thomas of the Pirates, third base, and Willie Mays of the Pirates and Aaron in the outfield.

Post-Dispatch Sports Editor Will Retire

ST. LOUIS (AP)—J. Roy Stockton, sports editor of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch announced his retirement today. It is effective July 1.

Bob Broeg, Cardinal baseball writer for the paper, will succeed Stockton. Broeg is currently president of the Baseball Writers Assn. of America.

Stockton has been a member of the Post-Dispatch staff for 41 years and the sports editor for the past 12 years.

Darlene Hard Wins USLTA Tennis Title

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Darlene Hard scored a 6-3, 6-4 victory over Owen McHaney Saturday to win the USLTA college girls tennis championship on the Washington University court here.

Miss Hard, representing Pomona College of Claremont, Calif., was the top seeded player in the tournament.

A Genuine Fish Story

Stolen—one 16 to 18 pound catfish from the car of Murrell Bowers, Milner Hotel, Saturday afternoon.

Bowers reported to the police at 3:55 p. m. the fish was believed taken by a man for whom Bowers swore out a city information for a city warrant charging the man with petit larceny.

Sinks Hole-in-One At Country Club

Elmer L. McClung, 2906 Southwest Blvd., set the golfers at the Sedalia Country Club to talking Saturday. McClung made Big Dinky, No. 6 hole, in one stroke for the first hole-in-one on the course in several years.

McClung, using a number three wood, made his swing and lost the ball as it dropped short of the hole and it rolled on to drop into the cup.

The hole-in-one was witnessed by Mrs. McClung and Herb Bopp, the club greens keeper.

Grove, Cobb And Others Don Uniforms

DETROIT (AP)—Lefty Grove, who won 300 major league games over a Boston Red Sox uniform and went to the pitching mound again Saturday.

The immortal Ty Cobb, who won a dozen batting championships as a Detroit Tiger, revisited the ball park he knew as Navin Field.

Six other Red Sox and Tiger members of the hall of fame and a host of former diamond greats took part in Detroit's Oldtimers' Day.

The Tigers were represented by the outfield of their first pennant winner, the 1907 team. Hall of famers Cobb and Sam Crawford rejoined 78-year-old Dave Jones, the oldest oldtimer in Briggs Stadium Saturday.

The entire starting lineup of the Tigers' first world championship team of 1935 was back. Manager Mickey Cochrane was behind the plate in the two-inning game between the old Red Sox and the old Tigers. Fittingly, they battled to a 1-1 tie while baseball rules were regarded lightly.

Joe Cronin and Jimmie Foxx were back in the Red Sox lineup. But it was light-hitting Jo Jo White from the 1934-35 Detroit pennant winners who provided the big thrill in the short game.

White belted one of Grove's offerings on a line into the lower rightfield seats. He trotted around the bases shaking hands with Red Sox and umpire alike as he went.

"They must be throwing golf balls nowadays," White said. "I hit a home run off Grove. Ask him."

The Red Sox scored a first-inning run off Tommy Bridges, Schoolboy Rowe and under-armed Eldon Auker, all from the 1934-35 Tigers.

After one inning, hall of famer Hank Greenberg came in and tossed his first baseman's glove to Rudy York.

"You go in their next inning," said Greenberg. "My gosh, second base has gotten awfully far away."

It was York who succeeded Greenberg as Tiger first sacker on the 1940 pennant winners. Greenberg then became an outfielder.

Cobb didn't get into uniform but drew a tremendous ovation when introduced.

"I wouldn't trust myself out there," he said. "I'm a small town country boy from a little town with a 2,800 population and I'm 71. So if I walk out there slowly, it's these old bones."

The Giants used five pitchers, with Ramon Monzant getting the loss.

Four walks and one Giant error helped along the Redlegs in the big sixth.

Sports Scraps

By D. KELLY SCRUTON

A Question arose during Town and Country annual picnic Saturday evening when I was the proud winner of a fiber glass casting rod. It seems there was a game going on and number 41 was a BIG NUMBER to me and resulted in my winning the casting rod.

Not being a confirmed fisherman all my luck at the sport has been fruitless in the years I tried my hand at it—I began to wonder, also, I wondered just how it will work for me when I start to use it.

But the "needling was out" with the question being asked "are you going to fish at Spring Fork?" to which I could only reply—"not if I can help it, 'cause I don't think Stanton would write me a permit."

Nevertheless, Town and Country certainly held a real party for their employees, and I was fortunate enough to be invited. Not that I am "angling" for another, invite in 1959. Oh, I will accept if it comes.

There was quite a little bragging here and there on the part of a few fellows who participated in the softball game with the regular Town and Country girl's team, who they defeated 16-2. The girls didn't have much to say, and from what I gathered it might have been a case of where the gals thought it was time to let the men win JUST ONE GAME in the annual affair.

Thanks, Bill Mathieson, Mrs. Scruton and our three grandsons enjoyed every minute of it, as I know the other 1,195 persons did.

ELMER McClung was certainly lucky Saturday morning when he had Mrs. McClung along with him and Herb Bopp, the Sedalia Country Club greens keeper, nearby as he made his "Ace" on Big Dinky, No. 6 hole on the club course. It was the first hole-in-one shot on the local course in several years.

Asked how he did it and what he used, McClung responded with: "I use a number three wood, made my swing and closed both eyes."

The ball hit the front part of the green, rolled up hill toward the pole, and eased over into the cup. "Why, that ball cleared the ditch gracefully and landed just where I expected it to," so bragged McClung.

McClung said he hadn't played a dozen rounds of golf in his life. Now I expect he'll be making it to the golf course several times a week trying to repeat his feat.

One thing for sure—he will have his breakfast cut out for him for the next few months. He gets a case of Wheaties that goes to every golfer who collects an ace during this year, a contribution from General Mills in Minneapolis.

Jerry Brennan, secretary of the Wheaties Sports Federation, is to be notified and the presentation will be on behalf of General Mills and Bob Richards, who is director of the Foundation.

Something else, if some of these local bowlers get a 300 game, then they can share honors with McClung on the Wheaties presentation as a case will be awarded every bowler having a perfect game.

ONE of the best in sports writing and editing has announced his retirement, J. Roy Stockton of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch has announced he is going to retire effective July 1.

Stockton, who I have had the pleasure of meeting and reading, is considered one of the deans among sports writers in the United States and the Post-Dispatch is losing a great organizer and leader for their sports pages.

He has contributed his success to "having a good grounding in English, a nasty disposition (which isn't as bad as he would let on) and a helluva good sports staff."

Smashes Babe Zaharias' Record

DETROIT (AP)—Willow Mickey Wright turned the U. S. Women's Open Golf Championship into a runaway Saturday and her winning total wiped out a U. S. Open record established by the incomparable Babe Zaharias.

Miss Wright, a 23-year-old blonde from Chula Vista, Calif., took the lead at the outset and won the biggest ladies' tournament of them all in a blazing finish.

Despite Saturday's rugged 36-hole requirements, Mickey fired a 70 in the morning round and a 74 in the afternoon for a winning 290 total. That eclipses the 291 record total that the late Mrs. Zaharias had in winning the 1954 U. S. Women's Open at Peabody, Mass.

This is the biggest victory of Miss Wright's young career and gives her the 1958 "slam". Recently she won the Ladies' PGA championship, and she did it in the same decisive fashion in both events.

She won the LPGA by 6 strokes and took this one by five.

Miss Louise Suggs, twice a winner and twice runnerup in the Women's Open, had a 71 and a 71 at Forest Lake Country Club and finished with 295.

Miss Wright's total was two strokes under par at Forest Lake's 37-36-73 layout.

At the halfway point before the 36-hole finale, Miss Wright had only a one stroke lead over Fay Crocker, 1955 Open winner from Montevideo, Uruguay. Miss Crocker er could do no better than 76-74 for a 297 total that gave her third place.

The victory was worth $1,800 to Miss Wright, who turned professional in 1954, the year she finished in a fourth-place tie as an amateur in this same tournament.

Alice Bauer finished strong with a 75-72 and her 300 total over the 6,240 yard course put her in fourth place. The 1947 champion, Betty Jameson, of San Antonio, finished fifth at 303.

Betsy Rawls, who took the 1957 title when Mrs. Jackie Pung, of San Francisco, was disqualified for a scoring error, had the day's best performance after a slow start. Her 73-70 pulled the three-time Open champion to 304, good enough for sixth place. Miss Rawls also won in 1951 and 1953.

Red Sox Nip Tigers 6-5 in 12 Innings

DETROIT (AP)—Ted Lepcio, who was hitting below .200, smashed a pinch-hit home run in the 12th inning Saturday, giving the Boston Red Sox a 6-5 triumph over the Detroit Tigers.

Lepcio was the first batter to face southpaw Billy Hoeltz—the Tigers' fifth pitcher. He sent his third pitch zooming into the left field seats. Bob (Riverboat) Smith, a rookie southpaw gained his fourth victory with three innings of relief work. Twice he retired the Tigers, leaving two runners stranded.

Jensen clouted two home runs—his 21st and 22nd of the season—and accounted for four of the Red Sox's tallies. They came in successive times at bat off starter Jim Bunning and reliever Herman Wehmeier.

Boston ... 000 103 010 001—6 9 2 Detroit ... 010 002 020 000—5 13 0 Sisler, Smith (9), Wall (12) and Berberet, White (11), Bunning, Wehmeier (6), Aguirre (9), Lary (10), Hoeltz (12) and Wilson.

Home Runs—Boston, Jensen 2 (22), Lepcio (3), Detroit, Kaline (9).

Indians Rally To Whip Orioles, 6 to 5

CLEVELAND (AP)—Vic Power doubled and J. W. Porter singled home the winning run in the ninth inning Saturday, giving the Cleveland Indians a 6-5 victory over the Baltimore Orioles. The Tribe continued the winning habit for new manager Joe Gordon, again using the formula of late-inning rallies.

Gordon sent up three pinch-hitters who drove in as many runs. Baltimore ... 300 011 000—5 6 0 Cleveland ... 020 002 011—6 10 2 Loes, Zuverink (6) and Triandos; Grant, Wilhelm (7) Mossi (9) and Porter. W—Mossi. L—Zuverink.

White Sox Whip Nats Despite Four Homers

CHICAGO (AP)—Although Washington banged four homers, two in a row by Roy Sievers, the Chicago White Sox rallied for four runs, three unearned, in the sixth and an 8-4 victory over the Senators Saturday.

Washington's Rocky Bridges and Norm Zachin also hit solo homers. Washington ... 010 201 000—4 7 1 Chicago ... 000 304 01x—8 14 1 Clevenger, Hyde (6), Stobbs (7) and Courtney; Wilson, Shaw (6), Staley (7) and Battey.

W—Shaw. L—Clevenger.

Home Runs—Washington, Bridges (3), Sievers 2 (17), Zachin (6).

Bob Patterson Tops Three Local Bowlers

Pat Patterson, nationally known St. Louis bowler, gave Sedalia's a view of his famous picture book form Friday night at Broadway Lanes on the "Bowling at Broadway" television program which was carried over KDRO-TV.

Although the likeable St. Louis professional didn't record any fantastic scores, he did manage to top each of his three Sedalia opponents in match competition. The captain of the St. Louis champion Budweisers clipped Bob McCurdy, 182-131 in the first match. McCurdy, a 180-plus roller, was plagued by five splits. Patterson uncorked a 202 in downing Red Heuerman, 203-176; and he nipped hard throwing Joe Long by one pin, 167-166.

Many Sedalia bowlers benefited from the opportunity to receive tips for improving their game on Friday afternoon and Friday night. Patterson participated in several other match games and followed the TV program he teamed with Fran Tray, maintenance engineer at Broadway Lanes, for a trick shot exhibition. Both had their pet shots, but in this category the Sedalian appeared to be the most versatile.

On Sunday night at 7 o'clock the opening games of the Sedalia Match Game Championship Tournament will be held. Sixteen kiegler, including many of the best in the area, have entered this meet. Sunday night's play features the following bowlers for the first three games: Eddie Boyse (180) vs. Bill Shockey (177); Marion Stevens (180) vs. Frank Dowdy (165); John Miers (180) vs. Bob Young (176); Bob McCurdy (180) vs. Dick Mills (167); Gene Williams (167) vs. Red Heuerman (181); Harry Nagel (175) vs. Jim Carter (174); John Hazell (182) vs. Jack Vaughn (182); and Vernon Bingham (170) vs. Charlie Thompson (175).

The public is welcome to attend this tournament. The affair will occupy eight alleys and the remaining alleys will be available for open bowling.

Commission Urges Caution on July 4 Weekend

With the approach of the long July 4th weekend, the Missouri Conservation Commission urges everyone fishing, swimming or boating to use extreme caution.

A resolution adopted by congress and signed by the President sets aside the week including July 4 as "National Safe Boating Week."

The week this year, June 29-July 6, is the second safe boating week designated by the federal government.

During the "Fourth" period last year there were 210 drownings in the nation, compared to 426 auto deaths and 99 fatalities in miscellaneous accidents.

Boat operators should use extreme caution in operating their crafts as there will likely be crowded conditions on many of the lakes and streams in Missouri. They should be extra cautious in areas where people are swimming, all occupants of the boat should have life-jackets or similar equipment, and overloading a boat should be avoided like the plague.

Waders should stay out of swift water, particularly if they are not familiar with the streams, and swimmers should stay in company of others. They should never try to swim farther than their abilities and physical condition allow.

Units of the Coast Guard Auxiliary and many local boat clubs plan special observances for the week.

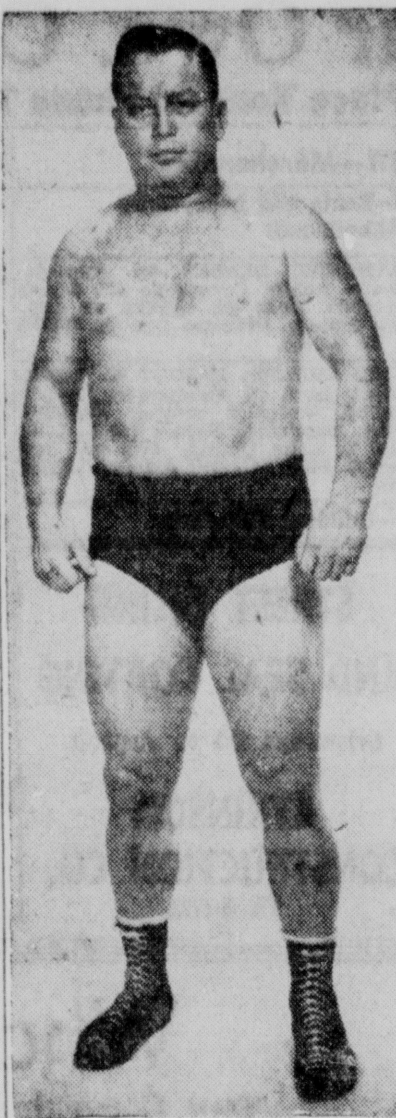

The Conservation Commission joins those organizations in urging you to play it safe during the "Fourth" weekend—and every weekend. The outdoors should be enjoyed. Don't make a family outing a family tragedy.

British Open Hopes Rest on Stranahan

ST. ANNE'S-ON-SEA, England (AP)—Frank Stranahan starts the lonely task Monday of salvaging the first American victory in the British Open Golf Championship since Ben Hogan turned the trick in 1953.

The big Ohioan is the American in the 128-year-old tournament with the best chance. Former title holder Gene Sarazen, now 56, is here, but says it's just for laughs. About 14 other Americans are not considered good enough.

A near record field of 360 golfers will play four rounds each over the 6,633-yard championship links at Royal Lytham and St. Anne's.

Red McIntyre

New Tag Team Combination On Mat Card

A new tag team combination heads the wrestling card on Tuesday night at the armory when Red McIntyre and Otto von Krupp join hands to meet Flying Joe Scarpa and Sonny Myers.

McIntyre has turned ruffian since his recent trip to the southwest and the Ottaville redhead is fast replacing Rip Hawk as a mat villain. Von Krupp, whose style is anything but sportsman-like, was happy to join McIntyre in hopes of finding a partner whose style could equal his own in ruggedness.

This new combination may find the going a bit more than they expected, since, as a team, both Myers and Scarpa have been having things their own way, due to their skill and speed. Scarpa especially has come to the front in recent months with his clever footwork and sensational flying dropkicks.

Although the Krupp-McIntyre duo have the edge in strength and mean mannerisms, for science, speed and cooperation Myers and Scarpa are favored. The match will have an hour's time limit and take two-out-of-three falls to win.

In the two-out-of-three fall semi-final, under a 45 minute time limit, two of the nation's leading female grapplers are scheduled to tangle. Kay Noble, the present Central States Women's Champion, should run into some stiff competition when she squares off against Kathy Starr, a husky young miss from Tucson, Arizona. Noble recently won the title from platinum blonde tigress Lorraine Johnson.

A victory for either girl should assure a world title match in the near future.

The special event pits the Nordic Thor Hagen against Klondike Ike, with a one fall to win, 30-minute time limit. Ike follows the bad boy pattern, and Hagen will be out to tame him.

Team captains McIntyre and Myers open the action for the night in a one-fall match that has a 15-minute time limit.

Giles Will Meet With NL Umpire Captains

CINCINNATI (AP)—Warren C. Giles, president of the National League, will conduct his second annual mid-summer meeting with the four National League umpire captains in Chicago on Monday, he announced Saturday.

Giles said that although "there is no special matter to be considered" at the meeting, "we feel it advantageous to all our umpires that the team captains get together at least once during the playing season to discuss any questionable matters which may have come up since our general meeting in the spring."

The four umpire captains are Al Barlick, Jocko Conlan, Dusty Boggess and Frank Dascoli.

American Hope Brightened

Mimi Arnold Upsets British Star In Wimbledon Tennis

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Tiny Mimi Arnold of Redwood City, Calif., upset British Amazon Christine Truman Saturday and keyed a six-player American advance through another round at the rain-splashed Wimbledon Tennis Championships.

Miss Arnold, just 19, standing 5-1 and weighing barely 100 pounds, outplayed, outdove and outvolleyed her 6-foot, 172-pound opponent who became Britain's tennis idol after her victory over New York's

A couple of high-scoring games took place in the majors at Liberty Park Friday evening.

Adco downed the Rotary club in the opener, 12-9. Rotary pitching was a little weak as Adco banged out 13 hits and drew four walks. Rotary, on the other hand, got only one hit by pitcher Briggs, but the club took advantage of 17 bases on balls.

Adco's Burnett and Meredith had three-for-four and four-for-four nights at the plate respectively. Wright was the winner and Briggs the loser.

Optimist came back the hard way in the second game to beat the Elks, 13-8. The club was trailing Elks 8-2 going into the fourth. Then they exploded in the top half of the fourth with seven runs on two hits, two walks and a costly error to take a 9-8 lead. Elks fought back but was unable to score again as Optimist pitching tightened.

Goff put the game on ice in the fifth by slamming a two-run homer over the left-field fence.

Winning hurler was Cook and the loser was Carson. Optimist had only four hits and nine walks. That, coupled with two errors, was sufficient to beat seven hits and five walks by Elks.

The Rotary B team defeated Adco's B team in the first game at Housel Park, 17-8. Rotary had nine hits against four Adco hits.

Winning pitcher was Dickman and the loser was Lamy.

The Rotary A's also beat the Adco A's in the second game, 12-2. Winning pitcher Hodges allowed only three hits and one walk. The loser, Dow, was tagged for only five hits but allowed nine walks. He had a one-for-two night at the plate. Rotary shortstop Arnest banged out two hits in three trips and gathered one walk.

Althea Gibson in the Wightman Cup matches two weeks ago. The score was 10-8, 6-3.

The center court battle brightened American prestige considerably on another gray, drizzly day that also saw the advance of Miss Gibson, the defending women's champion, and Barry MacKay of Dayton, Ohio, chief American hope in the men's singles.

Miss Gibson, playing well within herself, joined Miss Arnold in the quarter-finals with a 6-0, 6-4 victory over Lorraine Coghlan of Australia. Mrs. Margaret Osborne du Pont of Wilmington, Del., only other U.S. survivor in women's play, won a third-round match from Australia's Norma Marsh 6-3, 3-6, 6-6. Eighth-seeded Karol Fageros of Miami fell before Britain's Pat Ward, 2-6, 6-4, 6-4.

MacKay, former champion Budge Patty of Los Angeles and Paris, and 44-year-old Gardner Mulloy of Coral Gables, Fla., stepped up to the fourth round in men's singles.

MacKay, trailing Australian Bob Mark 4-6, 8-8 when rain intervened Friday, played spottily but well enough to win, 4-6, 10-8, 6-4, 6-4. Mulloy eliminated 21-year-old Mike Green of Miami Beach, Fla. 3-6, 6-4, 6-2. Patty completed a rain-delayed match with bearded Torben Ulrich of Denmark, 4-6, 7-5, 6-1, 6-2.

Other men's favorites moved along with little effort, including top-seeded Ashley Cooper and third-seeded Mervyn Rose, both of Australia.

Round Table Cops Arch Ward Memorial Race

CHICAGO (AP)—Round Table, racing's only active millionaire thoroughbred, romped to victory Saturday in the $56,050 Arch Ward Memorial Handicap to gain second place in the all-time money winning list.

The victory, Round Table's 22nd in his past 24 starts, was worth $33,000 and boosted his earnings to $1,090,014. He surpassed Citation who earned $1,085,760 and is second only to Nashua who has earned $1,288,565.

Willie Shoemaker kept Round Table, owned by Travis M. Kerr, within range as Aysha set the pace. Round Table took the lead after turning into the home stretch and finished the 1 3/16 miles race on Washington Park's turf in 1:54 4/5 seconds. The time was one-fifth of a second slower than the track record set by Swaps in 1955 and matched by Hoop Band in 1957.

Tall Chief II, Round Table's running mate owned by William G. Gilmore, finished second. One length behind him was Aysha. The entry of Round Table and Tall Chief II paid $2.60 $3.40 and $2.20. Aysha returned $2.20.

Second place was worth $10,000, third place $7,500 and Shan Pac took the $5,000 fourth money.

Stengel Will Have 9 Yanks On AL Squad

CHICAGO (AP)—Manager Casey Stengel wound up with 9 of his own run-away New York Yankees, including 3 pitchers, as he completed the 25-player American League squad for the July 8 All-Star game Saturday.

As expected, Boston's Ted Williams—omitted from the starting AL lineup named in Friday's poll of players, coaches and managers—was picked by Stengel for his complete squad which has seven pitchers.

The eight players, exclusive of pitchers, who received the highest vote at their respective positions in the player poll will start and play a minimum of three innings. Remainder of the squad was named by Stengel.

Stengel's unit includes five players from the Chicago White Sox; three from the Boston Red Sox; two each from the Cleveland Indians, Baltimore Orioles and Detroit Tigers; and one each from the Kansas City A's and Washington Senators.

The Yankees, who had first baseman Bill Skowron and center fielder Mickey Mantle named as starters, also will be represented by pitchers Whitey Ford, Bob Turley and Rindol Duren; catcher Yogi Berra; outfielder Elston Howard; shortstop Tony Kubek; and second baseman Gil McDougald.

Stengel will have three top lefties, including Ford, Billy Pierce of the White Sox and Billy O'Dell of the Orioles. His right-handed mound guns will be Turley, Early Wynn of the White Sox, Duren and Ray Narleski of Cleveland.

The starters will be Gus Triandos of Baltimore, catcher, Boston's Frank Malzone, third base, Chicago's Luis Aparicio and Nellie Fox at short and second, Skowron at first, Mantle in center, Kansas City's Bob Cerv in left and Boston's Jackie Jensen in right.

Will Try to Regain Prestige

Taylor, Aleshire, Sorrels Return to T-Bowl Wednesday

Ken Taylor, Torchy Aleshire and Walter Sorrels—the leading drivers of the Central Missouri Racing Association—will go all out Wednesday night to regain their prestige at Sedalia's Thunderbowl Speedway. They had combined to win every feature at the new Sedalia oval until Thursday night when they lost some of their "untouchable" class to a determined Russ Hibbard of Slater.

Hibbard, showing peak form after a relatively slow start, fired exhaust at the field in taking top prize money at the Thunderbowl on Thursday. He was clocked in 6:29.8 for the 25 laps jaunt around the quarter-mile track—a respectable time despite a heavy second Taylor managed to finish second, but Hibbard's brother was in third place and Joe Dennis copped fourth. It was the first time this season that either of the last named drivers have wound-up so high.

Aleshire ran fifth, John Gordon sixth and Sonny Roberson seventh. The familiar cloud of bad luck which seems to stay closer to Walter Sorrels than either Torchy Aleshire or Ken Taylor made its presence known again Thursday. The husky Columbia junkman in D-7 roared away with the trophy dash, but the "Sewer Gas Special" blew up for the second time at the Thunderbowl on the final leg of the fast heat—and that incident shelved Sorrels for the evening. Ken Taylor won the race, Aleshire third and John Gordon fourth. Sorrels still managed to wind up second.

In the first heat race Paul Kenfer, Herbin Thomason, D. Mann and Duck Green finished in that order. The third heat race went to Russ Hibbard, followed by Roy Hibbard, Joe Dennis and Tubby Mast in that order.

Although CMRA racing is featured every Wednesday at the Thunderbowl, the management has indicated it is making efforts to provide a different and all-star program in the near future.

Two Parades Will Launch J Bar H Rodeo

Parades in Jefferson City and Camdenton will kick off the 1958 J Bar H Rodeo to be held in Camdenton July 7 through July 12.

The Jefferson City parade starts at 9:45 a.m., Monday, July 7, and the kick-off event in Camdenton follows at 3 o'clock that afternoon—five hours before the opening performance in the 13,500 seat model rodeo arena.

The Chamber of Commerce organizations in both Jefferson City and Camdenton are cooperating with the — Bar H producers in staging the parades.

This will be the first J Bar H parade in Jefferson City. It will feature Rex Allen, star of the 1958 rodeo, his world-famous horse, "Koko," and many other — Bar H rodeo stars, floats, saddle clubs, and numerous elective state officials. Lt. Governor Edward V. Long and family, will ride in a phaeton in the Jefferson City procession.

Spectators in Jefferson City will have plenty of chances to meet Rex Allen in person before he and the others move to Camdenton for the 3 o'clock parade.

The Camdenton parade promises to be the biggest in the history of the seven-year-old Missouri rodeo. Business owners wishing to enter a float still have time to do so, and those interested should contact Mrs. Marzell Raines, Camdenton Chamber of Commerce secretary.

Harry B. Nelson, J Bar H producer, invites "one and all" to attend both of the 1958 parades.

Water Skiers to Vie On Lake in Oklahoma

SNUG HARBOR, Okla. A mass invasion of water skiers from a five-state area is moving into this Lake Fort Gibson resort for week-long practice runs prior to competing in the July 5 water ski race from Snug Harbor Resort to Highway 33 bridge and return.

The 30-mile race, the first of its kind on an Oklahoma lake, is drawing entrants from Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas and Texas. The waters between the starting and finishing points on the course are dotted with ski teams already in training to win the $100 cash prize.

The formal registration for teams will open on the morning of July 5, and the deadline for registrants will be 10 a.m. Both inboard and outboard motor boats are eligible.

The ski contest will highlight three days of Fourth of July events planned for Snug Harbor guests and visitors.

Australian Swimming Star Smashes Records

BRISBANE, Australia (AP)—Perry Gathercole shattered three world records Saturday as the Australian swimming team took its final workout before leaving for the British Empire Games at Cardiff, Wales. Gathercole held all three records broken.

He bettered the 110-yard breast stroke mark by six-tenths of a second when timed in 1:12.4 and slashed four seconds from each of standards in the 220-yard and 200-meter breast strokes. In the former he was clocked in 2:36.5 and in 2:36 for the metric distance.

Was a Wanted Man

Seng Sums Up His Survival In the Philippine Jungles

By ED MARKAITY

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—"I was a wanted man when the Philippines fell. My life is a living testimony to God's grace and keeping power."

Thus Go Puan Seng, publisher of Manila's Fookien Times and Morning Journal, sums up his survival in the back jungles of the Philippines for more than a thousand days.

His account of wartime adventures in the Japanese-conquered islands is told in "The Hour Had Come," published recently by Douma Publications in Grand Rapids.

In the book, Go, a Buddhist who became a Presbyterian when he married, expounds the belief that faith in God can—and does—sustain hope and life during the darkest hours.

When the Japanese invaded the Philippines, Go was told by fellow publisher Carlos P. Romulo:

"You will be the first Chinese they will shoot."

At the urging of his wife, Felisa, Go and three others took refuge at the home of a friend in the jungle. He spent two months in hiding—and in prayer.

"The Lord gave me Jeremiah 39:17-18," Go writes.

"But I will deliver thee in that day, saith the Lord; and thou shalt not be given into the hand of the men of whom thou art afraid."

"For I will surely deliver thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sword, but thy life shall be for a prey unto thee; because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the Lord."

Throughout the jungle hills the Japanese pressed the hunt for Go and his wife and five children.

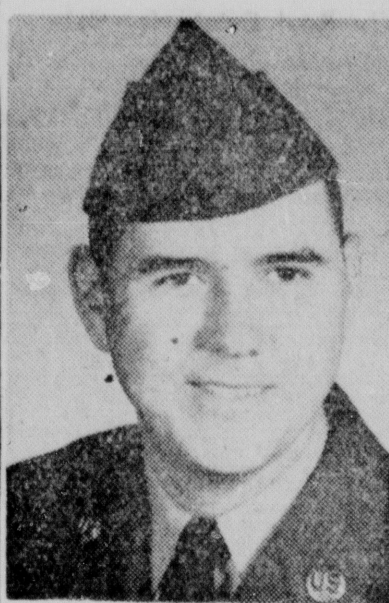

"But God in his providence watched over me," writes Go, "and although through untold torture (of associates) our hiding place was actually revealed, God used a friendly interpreter to confuse the enemy on instructions to reach our hiding place."

Despite the fact that his newspaper plant was burned by the Japanese, Go resumed publication of the Fookien Times Feb. 8, a month after the first American forces landed on Luzon.

"With God we would go forward," says Go. "He was marching on to victory. His truth is still marching on."

Dick Sklar Departs For West Point

Dick, who received his appointment by congressman Morgan M. Moulder, will be at West Point for 11 months to receive his first year of military training.

One-Time Ballerina Favorite of Stalin Is Caught Shoplifting

BRUSSELS (AP)—Olga Lepesjinskaia, once Stalin's favorite ballerina, was caught shoplifting in a Brussels department store, police said today.

The star of the Bolshoi Ballet now appearing at the Brussels World Fair, Miss Lepesjinskaia is ranked only behind Galla Ulanova and Maya Plisetskaya among Moscow's famous ballerinas.

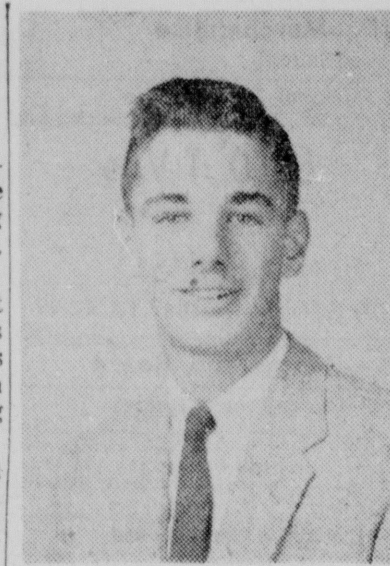

Police said she was stopped on leaving the store Friday by a store detective, who had been tipped off by a customer.

She pleaded to be allowed to attend ballet rehearsals, but was hustled off to a police station, then to the Palace of Justice for questioning.

Police said she finally admitted taking an umbrella, two pairs of gloves, cuff links and some tape.

Unlike the celebrated case of a Soviet woman athlete convicted of shoplifting in London in 1956, this one seemed unlikely to cause an international incident.

Store officials indicated they would not take any action.

TO ANNAPOLIS —Charles S. Arnest, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Arnest, 501 West Broadway, who was accepted for entrance into the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis on June 12, left Sedalia Saturday and will report on Monday, June 30, for his first day of training.

His acceptance was based on a competitive test in which 156 Naval ROTC college students throughout 52 colleges participated. He was one of ten out of this group to be accepted. Attending the University of Missouri this past year as a freshman, he was appointed one of three by the school's president to take the College Board Test for entrance into the academy.

Charles will have four years of school at Annapolis and at least four years in the Navy.

The only other bidder was a St. Louis company.

The first section would provide access to the University's new golf course.

Final Senate Approval Last Step for Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Only final Senate approval is needed to complete congressional action on President Eisenhower's proposal to share atomic weapons information and material with U. S. allies.

The House voted Friday to accept a compromise of relatively minor differences between Senate and House versions of the measure. The Senate is expected to act the first of next week.

The chief provision of the bill would apply only to Britain. This provision would permit exchange of nuclear weapon making information and material and non-nuclear parts of atomic weapons only with allies that have reached an advanced stage in weapons production capability. So far, Britain is the only U. S. ally to reach such a stage.

Other allies could qualify later if they achieved an advanced stage on their own.

Other provisions of the bill would permit the less further advanced allies to:

1. Receive information about characteristics of atomic weapons to facilitate their training and readiness to participate in a possible nuclear conflict.

2. Receive certain non-nuclear parts of composite weapons such as missiles, and nuclear devices of military significance such as submarine propulsion reactors.

All exchanges under the bill would be subject to congressional veto.

Donations Bfings Wife To Husband's Bedside; Airman Dies at Scott

BELLEVILLE, Ill. (AP)—An Indiana airman whose friends in Japan passed the hat to send his wife and son to his bedside died Friday night at Scott Air Force Base after nearly six months' treatment for leukemia.

Airman I.C. John Veale, 22, Washington, Ind., was stricken last Jan. 8 in Japan and flown here for treatment.

A month later, air force friends in Japan chipped in to fly his Japanese wife, Kiku, and their 4-year-old son Kenneth to the United States. Their flight had been delayed until medical authorities certified that Mrs. Veale's case of tuberculosis was arrested.

Mrs. Veale has been dividing her time between the base hospital and the Indiana home of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Veale.

The airman's body will be returned to Washington, Ind., for funeral and burial.

Cruiser, USS Salem, Home for Retirement After Good Record

ROME (AP)—The heavy cruiser U.S.S. Salem, longtime flagship of the mighty 6th Fleet and the best known American ambassador in the Mediterranean area for almost eight years, is headed home today for retirement.

A sister, the U.S.S. Des Moines has relieved the Salem and taken over the 6th Fleet flag. The Salem is due in Norfolk, Va., early next month under command of Capt. Francis T. Williamson of Tiverton, R.I.

The 21,000-ton, 30-knot Salem came to the Mediterranean in 1950. In seven periods as flagship since then, the last for two years, she became known from Gibraltar to Istanbul.

She showed her guns in times of crisis, evacuated Americans from Egypt during the Suez fighting in 1956, and stood by during the 1957 Jordanian crisis. She rescued the crew of a burning yacht and helped search for missing planes and fishing boats.

The Salem, commissioned in 1949 and named for the Massachusetts city, will join other Navy units in moth balls for future need.

More than a quarter-million beetle species have been described and new ones are still coming to notice.

URBANIZED AMERICA—The eastern seaboard of the United States (black area on Newsmag) is the largest and most complex urban system in the world. The Greeks, as usual, had a word for it: "megalopolis"—or great city. The American megalopolis, of course, is not one great single city, but a concentration of large and small cities and counties with a metropolitan, or urban, economy. A study of megalopolis by the Twentieth Century Fund shows that similar concentrations are growing to the west of the Appalachians (shaded areas). As modern techniques enable more food to be grown on less land, and as a greater percentage of the population turns to urban activities, the cities are destined to expand. Ellipse on map suggests a vast megalopolis of the future which seems to be shaping up.

Matrons Assemble For Reunion Of Guenther Store

On Wednesday, June 25, eleven matrons from Sedalia and one from New Franklin, formerly of Sedalia, met at the home of Mrs. Fred G. Rose, 815 West Third, for a contributive luncheon.

The occasion was a reunion of employees of the Guenther Store. The Guenther Dry Goods Store was located in the building now occupied by the Kresge Store. It was for many years a popular shopping center for people residing in this shopping area, customers coming by train from surrounding towns.

After the luncheon, pictures were taken and the afternoon was spent in reminiscing and looking at pictures taken back in the 1920s. Especial interest was shown in the pictures of the "Guenther Bathing Beauties" taken at Liberty Park in those flashing knee-length jersey bathing suits and long black stockings.

Those present were Mrs. M. O. Stevens (Frances Rutt), Mrs. Forrest Hood (Sue Tally), Miss Frances Kehl, Mrs. Chester Long (Ordine Schott), Mrs. Tom Cerny (Flossie Moore), Mrs. Elmer Adams (Irel Hurley), Mrs. L. F. Viobrock (Lulu Oelrichs), Mrs. J. L. Van Wagner (Sadie Gold), Mrs. Fred G. Rose (Blanche Richardson), Mrs. Mattie Switzer (Mattie Hilton), Mrs. H. F. Heise (Anna Carpenter), and Mrs. H. T. Hamlett (Canna Gorrell) and Mr. Hamlett of New Franklin, Mo., formerly of Sedalia.

Those unable to attend were: Chester Long, Mrs. George Bird, Mrs. Leonard Bouldin, Mrs. Myrtle Bohon, Mrs. Myrtle Buckley of Sedalia and Mrs. C. A. Phillips of New Franklin and Mrs. Mary Williams of Kansas City.

Another reunion was planned for next year.

Sense of Humor May Help Feelings of Tough Times

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — "When times are tough in this country, people learn to laugh at themselves," said Johnny Carson. "It's an American trait—and it's a good one."

An improvement in the national sense of humor, he feels, may be one of the few welcome by-products of the current recession.

Like most professional comedians, Carson believes individuals and nations tend to become stuffy and a bit pompous during prosperity.

"When people take themselves too seriously, it's hard to kid them," he said. "You run into taboos."

Johnny is in the front rank of a new crop of young comics springboarded to national attention by TV. His trigger-fast mastery of light patter made him something of a comedian's comedian before he caught on with the public.

Carson was born in Corning, Iowa, brought up in Norfolk, Neb. As did most Midwest kids of his day, he answered correspondence ads on how to learn to be a magician and ventriloquist by mail. The difference is that Johnny actually did become a magician and ventriloquist—but wound up a career funny man.

Here is his theory of why anyone ever became a comedian: "Somewhere along the way he did something different, and somebody laughed. Then he learned that he could defend himself in a situation by being funny—instead of having to fight his way out. Once he discovered this, he knew what his life work had to be."

After a number of years in radio, Johnny went to the West Coast and wrote comedy material for Red Skelton. He got his first big network break when he substituted for Skelton after the latter injured himself during a rehearsal scene.

Since then Carson has had a couple of network shows of his own, starred in night clubs and a Broadway production. His next goal: Movies.

Johnny never knocks other performers. He'd rather study them.

His own favorites are Jack Benny, W. C. Fields, Laurel and Hardy, and Sid Caesar.

"It seems to me we're in a new generation of humor, Jack Benny, George Burns, Jimmy Durante—they all had tough backgrounds. They had to fight their way up."

"But now a newer generation is coming along that didn't have to fight so hard. Their humor, by and large, is gentler. They have an intimacy that fits television."

"It does no good to tell your personal problems to your audience. They have their own worries. A guy making $90 a week isn't going to flood his living room with tears over the comedian's problems. He knows the comedian gets well paid for his sorrows."

After supper guests were Mr. and Mrs. True Ulmer and Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn White and family of Green Ridge.

Later in the evening refreshments were served.

Merilyn Reynolds, Clinton Durham Exchange Vows

Miss Merilyn Sue Reynolds, Maryville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Reynolds, and Clinton Leroy Durham, Warsaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Durham, were united in marriage at half past two o'clock Saturday afternoon, June 21, at the Laura Street Baptist Church, Maryville. The Rev. Melvin Hill read the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of white lilies and pink roses. White candelabra held the burning tapers which were lighted by Billy Reynolds, brother of the bride, and Ronald Hughes, Maryville.

Proceeding the ceremony, Mrs. Melvin Hill, organist, Maryville, played selections of appropriate music and also accompanied Miss Barbara Reynolds, sister of the bride, as she sang "O Perfect Love" and "I Love You Truly."

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, chose a white nylon and acetate lace gown. The long molded bodice was fashioned with scalloped neckline and a huge butterfly bow at the waistline in back. The full gathered skirt had a pleated net insert in front and was ballerina length. She carried a bridal bouquet of red roses on a white ribbon.

The maid of honor, Miss Isabelle Gaskill, Maryville, wore a ballerina length gown of lavender net with a nosegay of daisies in shades to match the gown.

Slowpoke A Menace

Deferential respect should be accorded men and women automobile drivers who conscientiously endeavor to operate their vehicles with caution in the interest of safety.

In 30-mile city zones this is a commendable practice and minimizes potential hazards. In 70-mile zones on major highways such vigilance is in utter contrast with the purposeful intent of safe driving. Then the slowpoke driver becomes a menace not so much to himself but to others.

On the open highway the problem of the slow driver is becoming increasingly apparent. It is not unusual for normal traffic to be clogged behind a truck or passenger car moving 35 or 40 miles an hour. One might be sympathetic with over-cautious drivers of such vehicles except that they are creating a condition of peril.

Laggards invite others to pass them. But often hills, curves and approaching travel in the opposite lane restrain those behind from attempting one of the most dangerous maneuvers on the highway. Dozens of cars are caught in a creeping line. Delayed and annoyed drivers start taking chances. Accidents and deaths result.

We had a personal experience in Mississippi last spring. There were thirty cars in a line behind two pickup trucks traveling 35 miles an hour on a major highway. This lasted for one hour and a half without one state patrolman intervening to give relief.

In Missouri the State Highway patrol has established a practice of inviting slowpoke drivers to move off the road onto a wide shoulder or access road long enough to let congestion they have caused clear up. This is in line with a campaign of education to encourage slow poke drivers to take a look into their rear view mirrors and note when a string of cars begin to pile up behind them, then voluntarily pull to the side of the road and let them pass.

Ultimately this may get results. But there will always be a few slow drivers who think that once they get on a highway it's their own business how fast they travel. One often sees this type come creeping off a side road onto a highway in face of fast moving cars.

But the slow driver who believes his movement on the highway cannot be challenged is mistaken. Missouri law states: "No person shall drive a motor vehicle at such a slow speed as to impede or block the normal and reasonable movement of traffic. The exception is when reduced speed is necessary for safe operation or in compliance with laws."

Flagrant violation of this edict by holding up long lines of traffic puts the slow driver in the vulnerable position of being ordered off a road by the highway patrol and further likelihood of receiving a summons for traffic violation.

Common courtesy dictates the slow driver pull off the road voluntarily when he knows he is blocking the normal and reasonable flow of traffic.

Israel May Be Last Near East Bastion

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — "Lightning Joe" Collins, the combat general who took Cherbourg with such speed during the Normandy invasion and who later became Army chief of staff, believes the United States will lose the entire Near East—except for Israel.

General Collins was talking to a group of his Army-Navy cronies at the Army and Navy Club almost simultaneously with John Foster Dulles' worries over sending Marines into Lebanon to rescue that country from pro-Nasser, pro-Soviet Arabs.

Collins expressed the belief that the United States could not block the tide of Arab nationalism and that in war we could not use Near East oil anyway. The waterways through the Red Sea and Suez are too narrow, can be too easily bombed or patrolled by submarines. Furthermore, the Russians have airfields only 400 miles away and could bomb oil installations in a few minutes.

By using oil from Canada, Venezuela and the United States, opined General Collins, the West could get along without Arabian oil anyway. In time of peace the Arabs want to sell their oil to the West just as much as Western Europe wants to buy it.

"The Israeli Army is one of the toughest and most modern in the world," said one of the toughest combat commanders of World War II. "As long as they are helped by American Jewry, Israel can survive as the one friendly outpost in the Near East."

General Collins thinks General DeGaulle will be able to save Algerian oil for France if he plays it smart. He will have to keep our American oil companies and will have to make peace with the Algerian Nationalists. If he doesn't, he'll have a guerrilla war on his hands for years.

"You and I know," General Collins reminded his Army buddies, "What it means to fight a guerrilla war. You just can't win."

"No Gifts" — Sherman

Think It Through

—By E. F. Hutton

GOTTA HEADACHE?—As an old-timer, I recall when we did our own "withholding" on our take-home pay. But now employers are compelled to "withhold" 20 per cent and pay it over to Big Government. Why? Doesn't the Government trust us to pay our taxes? NO.

Big Government must have big money to support big spending. Eighty-five per cent of all personal income taxes comes from the 20 per cent bracket, and the interest charge on the national debt totals 1,200,000,000 bucks since 1953. That's the headache!

Relief would come when "Uncle" stops dipping out of all activities that could and should be handled by Constitutional Free Enterprisers. And no fooling! The sooner Uncle Sam starts getting back to the job that he was originally designed to do, i.e., to run the affairs of Government, the sooner we will have less headaches, and more jobs!

Now pops up another pain—one in the neck. Paul M. Butler, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, speaking to college students in Seattle, told them: "The American people cannot buy when they haven't got the money to buy."

O.K., Paul, correct as all-get-out. But why haven't they got the money? One big reason is that the Government "withholds" so much of their earnings. Paul doesn't explain this at all.

What Paul told the students convinces me that he is an economist who can draw a crooked line between two undersigned points.

Odds and Ends
By News Staff

GUESTS FROM THE city telephoned a Sedalia resident recently that they were coming to spend one day with her. As the weather had warmed up, the hostess debated whether to serve her guests iced tea or coffee.

Having known the habits of this family for a number of years, she recalled they were magnificent coffee lovers. Coffee was served in their home at any hour of the day or night. The wisest thing to do, she decided, was to wait until they arrived and be sure. When her guests arrived, she asked the question as to what they would like to drink, and their reply was, "Instant coffee." They were both under the care of their family doctor, and could not drink strong coffee. So the jar of coffee was set on the table, with each person making his own.

After the guests departed, the hostess, happy that the day had gone successfully, was suddenly shocked when her husband said, "Why did you serve Postum for dinner today?" Her heart flipped over a few times and some of the joy departed when she found she had placed the jar of Postum on the table, advertising in huge letters the contents therein. Ordinarily, this drink is served in the home and force of habit caused this error.

East Germans Report Nine Army Prisoners Living in Comfort

BERLIN (AP) — Communist East Germany reported today that nine U.S. Army prisoners are living in comfort on an "enforced vacation."

Deputy Foreign Minister Otto Winzer, who dealt with the United States in the case, said the Army men were getting "absolute correct treatment."

In an exclusive interview, Winzer gave this first report on the handling of the American prisoners who strayed across the border in a helicopter early this month.

Winzer said his regime stood steady to return the Army men and their helicopter quickly if a fully accredited U.S. government delegate would sign an agreement covering the handover.

The United States has refused to sign such an accord, holding that it would imply diplomatic recognition of the German satellite regime.

The nine army men—eight officers and a sergeant from the 3rd Armored Division in West Germany, fell into East German hands June 7 when their helicopter became lost in a storm.

When American recipes use the French word "saute" they usually mean to cook a food fairly quickly in a small amount of fat.

If looks could kill, a lot of people would die with a batch of bridge cards in their hands. —NEA

Pressure In Disguise

Innocent Calls From On High Have Effective Impact

By Joseph A. Dear

Of Our Washington Bureau
WASHINGTON—Women may be found who have never had an intrigue, a sardonic Frenchman once wrote, but she is rarely found who has had just one.

Rep. Oren Harris, the affable and courtly Arkansas Democrat whose investigators discovered all those hotel bills, the vicuna coat, and the oriental rug might reject La Rochefoucauld's maxim as written. But doubtless the Congressman has sufficient insight to appreciate that the psychological principle is sound.

In May, 1954, a lawyer employed by the Internal Revenue Service received a call from the office of Bernard Shanley, then the White House counsel. Mr. Shanley, his secretary said, wanted Internal Revenue to know that an attorney, whose client's tax case was pending, was a friend. Mr. Shanley hoped his friend would be shown every consideration.

When Sherman Adams, who was White House chief of staff in 1954 too, appeared before the Harris committee, he was asked if he had ever made any "routine" calls to the Internal Revenue Service.

"Mr. Chairman," Adams replied, "I think there are some lessons which we can learn no matter how far along in life we get. I think I learned that lesson a long time ago. To the best of my knowledge and belief, there has never been an inquiry in respect to a tax matter regarding an individual that has come out of my office."

Sherm the Firm may have been talking about his office in the literal sense. So it wouldn't be quite fair to knock down any partitions, though of course he did rule the roost.

But the fact that Shanley's office—he has since left the White House—did call Internal Revenue shows that not everyone was as sensitive to the proprieties as Adams.

The particulars of the Shanley incident, in view of recent developments, are worth recalling. The matter began when Joe Levy, assistant to ex-Senator Robert Hendrickson (R-N.J.) called an attorney at Internal Revenue.

Levy asked about the status of a tax case. Internal Revenue advised a compromise offer probably would be rejected. Levy said speed was of the essence, because banks were threatening to foreclose mortgages. The man at Internal Revenue suggested a conference with the lawyer handling the case.

Vince Duffy of Patterson, N. J., was the lawyer. On the day his conference at Internal Revenue was scheduled, the Internal Revenue attorney got the call from Shanley's office in the White House.

The call had impact as calls from the White House do. One IRS official was at once inclined to accept a compromise settlement of $6,000. More than $100,000 in taxes were due. Fortunately, not everyone at IRS panicked, and a compromise offer of $28,000 was made later.

The point to note is the impact this casual call from Shanley's office had. Because of it, at least one IRS official forgot that tax cases should be decided on their merit, and not influence.

The larger implications of this incident are obvious. Is it possible that this was the only time a member of the White House staff fell from grace by calling Internal Revenue?

Thinking It Over

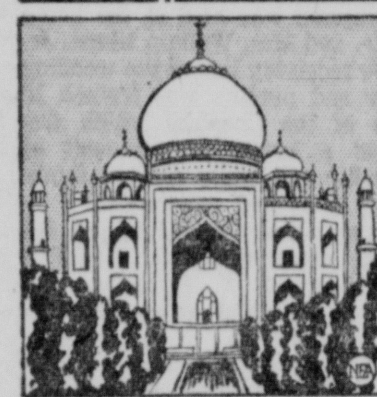

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D.D.

The word "salesman" is not generally applied to the thousands of people in offices who writeup the sales ticket or fill out the contract on the completion of a business transaction. People involved in the direct contact with the customer are most frequently classed as salesmen.

Actually, everyone who demonstrates a product, or who puts in a word of commendation is a salesman. The television performer who appears under a sponsorship is a salesman. This is true whether the product is a material object a human service or a spiritual satisfaction.

Everyone is selling ideas — hatred, indifference, love or some other intangible to his fellowmen. We are constantly influencing others to accept our faith in God or our rejection of Him. Let us determine to make our influence positive for God.

Matter of FACT

The Taj Mahal, probably the costliest tomb in history, was built in the 17th century by the Emperor Shah Jahan in memory of his favorite wife, Mumtaz Mahal. When construction of the Taj Mahal began in 1632 at Agra, India, the Shah ordered the stopping of all other Hindoo temple building.

4-H Round-Up with
OWEN FOX
Pettis County Assoc. Agent

July Dates

July 1, County 4-H Council meeting, Assembly Room of Court house, 8 p.m.
July 12, County-wide "Buying and Wearing Clothes" project meeting.
July 15, County 4-H Judging Day.
July 19, 4-H IFYE Auction.
July 26, 4-H Tractor Skilled Operators contest.

July 30 - Aug. 1, County 4-H Achievement Day.
Looking Ahead
As you can see from the dates listed above, July will be a busy month for 4-H.
First, let's talk about the Pettis County 4-H Achievement Day. The 4-H Achievement Day and the County 4-H Livestock Show are two of the biggest events of the year. Why? Because here is where the 4-H members have the opportunity to exhibit the things they have made or raised in their project and receive some recognition for it.

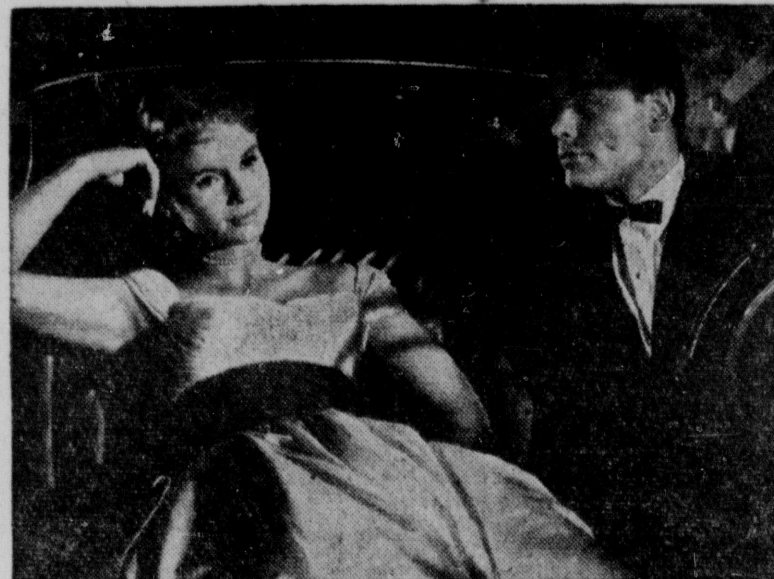

The 4-H members should strive to have all of their items completed by the 4-H Achievement Day. This gives them an opportunity to exhibit the things they have made or raised in their project. This leads up to this question: "Have you 4-H members been attending your project meetings regularly so that you have the guidance of your 4-H project leader in making your articles?"
"Have you project leaders held enough meetings for the 4-H members to complete their project soon or have you held no meetings and left the 4-H member to do the work the best way he or she knows how without your leadership and guidance?"
Here are some suggestions about preparing agricultural exhibits. In woodwork, don't paint salt boxes unless it is a white, creosote paint. From some paints there is a danger of livestock getting lead poisoning. Also, it is not too practical to paint salt boxes for farm use. In vegetables don't peel the outer leaves off of cabbage or onions. If the class calls for a plate of 12 carrots and you bring only five carrots, then be looking for a white ribbon or no ribbon.

4-H Camp
All 4-H members wishing to attend the County 4-H Camp may sign up and pay their $6 fee any time from 8 a.m. this Tuesday, July 1, to 5 p.m. Thursday, July 10, at the County Extension Office. No entries will be accepted until July 1. A total of 75 4-H members and 8 adults may attend from Pettis County.
Getting your name and fee in to go to 4-H camp will be handled on a "first come—first served" basis, although we think that everyone who signs up will get to go because Pettis County will be allowed to take 15 more than last year.

4-H Judging Day
The Pettis County 4-H Judging Day will be held July 15 at the First Methodist Church, located at the corner of Fourth and Osage in Sedalia.

Rev. Wilbur Helle to Attend Summer School
By Mrs. Myrtle Yarnell

CLARKSBURG — The Rev. and Mrs. Wilbur Helle and daughter, are moving to Jefferson City where he will attend summer school. He will teach at Holt Summit, near Jefferson City, the coming school year. Each Sunday, he will motor to Clarksburg to fulfill his duties as pastor of the Clarksburg Baptist Church.
Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lander spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. George Albin.

Airman L. D. Scott, Mrs. Scott and son are here from Mountain Home, Ida., spending his furlough with Mrs. Scott's mother, Mrs. Margaret Caldwell, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Scott and other relatives.

Mrs. O. W. Raithel returned home Wednesday after a week's visit in St. Louis with Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Francis and children and Mrs. E. Ray Knoll.
Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bardwell, Kansas City, have received word of the death of Mrs. Bardwell.

The Clarksburg post office has new rental boxes installed inside the building and a new box in front for the mailing of letters when the office is closed.

When the strawberry season was in full swing Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Baughman, both employed as the telephone operators here, went to their farm north of town each day during the berry season. They and their son, Roger, and family, Kansas City, have three government ponds and three conservation ponds on their farms and these ponds furnished water for irrigating their two acres of strawberries. This year, the berries were of very fine quality due to the fact that they had been well irrigated, and 1,033 gallons were sold at the farm. Most of the berries were of the Blakemore and Premier varieties. The Baughmans plan to double their plot and have at least four acres in strawberries next year. The crab grass was cleaned out of the strawberry patch by geese, this being one of their favorite foods.

'Old Man' Getting Younger
KANSAS CITY — Fathers are getting younger, it seems. A greeting card company checked national statistics and found that the average age for becoming a father in the United States has dropped from 27 to 25 in the last 48 years. Early marriages are responsible, according to the records.
In 1955 the average American male was just under 23 when he married, but in 1910 he was 25. Today slightly more than 60 per cent of married men under 25 have children. Just before World War II, only 50 per cent of the same age group had become parents.

BUILDING A NEW AGE—Photograph above shows the 45-million-dollar Dresden nuclear electric power station, the nation's largest currently under construction, near Lorenzo, Ill., about 50 miles south of Chicago. Expected to go into operation in 1960, the plant will generate enough electricity for a city of 250,000 persons. Sixty tons of uranium will keep it going for six years. A conventional power station the same size would burn more than three million tons of coal in that time. Sphere at right, 190 feet in diameter and 14 stories high, will house a 285-ton nuclear reactor, now being built in Camden, N.J. It will be transported to the Dresden site via the Atlantic Ocean, Gulf of Mexico and Mississippi River.

Chamber of Commerce Gets Letters About Sedalia Homes

The Chamber of Commerce has been very pleased with the interest and the response it has received in the "Yard of the Month" contest this year, which is sponsored by the Chamber and the Sedalia Garden Clubs.

In addition to having addresses called in about attractive yards all over town, some have taken the time to write letters.

A letter written June 8 is as follows:

"Dear Sirs:

"I live in Kansas City and while visiting in your town last week a group of my friends and myself decided to ride around and look at the 'Yards of the Month.' They were all very beautiful, but while riding we saw a home that we thought more beautiful than all the others. This home is at 18th and Park and is owned and lived in by the Fosters. It is well kept and shows a lot of hard work. I understand that Mrs. Foster does all the lawn mowing, trimming, setting out and tending these flowers and all of the yard work herself. She has evergreens the entire length of the front of the house with scarlet sage in front of them."

"Both the back yard and front yard was freshly mowed and with the trees on the terrace as well as in the back being white washed."

"The front was a blaze of color with red roses blooming, also red roses on the backyard fence and in the corner of the backyard with hanging pot. There was also a patio in the back with red wood furniture."

"We thought this home very neat and beautiful and while we do not know Mrs. Foster personally, we feel she should certainly be complimented in her efforts and hard work to keep this home so attractive."

The letter was signed: "Mrs. Mildred Hesselton, Kansas City, Mo."

This is exactly what the Chamber wants, out-of-town people to be impressed with Sedalia homes and people of this area to enjoy them, too.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Jewell T. Foster, 1800 South Park, was listed for judging and received honorable mention in the southwest division.

Among the third place winners in the June 'Yard of the Month' contest was the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis O. Thompson, 2119 South Kentucky, in the southwest division. This white house with yellow trim has a great expanse of lawn fenced in. It has a wide variety of trees, among them the smoke tree. There are large and very beautiful evergreen trees, as well as many unusual trees. A pink tamarix lends color at the corner of the yard in front and on the other side is a bed of bright flowers around a bird bath. In the back is an inviting picnic area that may be seen from the front.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly E. Turner, 815 East Sixth, is a green house with a darker green trim which is enhanced by the climbing red roses on either side of the porch. The foundation planting is spirea, and porch boxes are filled with blooming plants. At the side is a rose arbor. This is the third place winner in northeast division.

Third place winner of the southeast division was Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Thomas, 633 East Ninth. This is a white house with a very colorful flower garden that is a combination of roses, poppies, larkspur and many other brilliant annuals and perennials.

In the northwest division the third place winner was the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ocie D. Lucas, 519 West Cooper. This is always a neat home that attracts attention. Located on Highway 65, north, this gray frame house with maroon trim set on a high terrace. The grass is always mowed and well cared for, and there is nice foundation planting, and in the back yard are red roses that may also be seen from the highway.

In the honorable mention group were the following homes:

The red house with white shutters and white colonial style porch of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Griffith, 2401 West 11th, in the southwest division. There is foundation planting of evergreen and shrubs and red roses are on trellis. On the porch is a tea cart with flower pots of blooming flowers.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Bradbury is a green shingle house at 100 East 19th. Hydrangeas are used as foundation planting, there are red roses and canas and at the west side a bird bath with a little boy sitting in the center fishing. On the east side is an inviting patio with a big umbrella. It is a most attractive place.

Mrs. Lottie Meisenheimer, 1504 East Broadway, has a little gray house with a blue roof. Many flowers give color to this home with hydrangeas, red salvia, roses, red petunias and a little yellow flower bed growing at the side and along with the evergreens in front. This was in the southwest division.

the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Stephens, 300 North Engineer, gives color to this home, as well as do the bright flowers in the boxes in front and at the south side of the home where a rose arbor is also located. When the roses were at their height, this place was a mass of color. This is in the northeast division. The green and white home of Mrs. Marie A. Green, 404 West Cooper, was beautifully kept with foundation planting of shrubs. There were red roses on either side and many nice trees. This was in the northwest division.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Meyer, 600 North Quincy, is a white house with red shutters. There are red roses and shrubs, urns filled with flowers, a hedge around the home and many flowers in the back yard.

Mr. and Mrs. Robb Whitley, who live at 110 South Prospect, have a homey looking place with a white frame house with green shutters and awnings and encircled with a white picket fence. There is a nicely kept terraced lawn with shrubs for foundation planting and large trees. Bright flowers in red pots are very effective at the two front windows on either side of the entrance.
